AN ORDINANCE to restrict the owners or drivers of horses attached to vehicles from leaving the same unsecured.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. It shall not be lawful for any owner or driver, or any person in charge of any vehicle whatsoever to leave his horse or horses attached thereto, in any of the streets of this city, without first securing such horse or horses by means of a sufficient halter, rope or chain, or without some suitable person to take the charge or guidance of them so as to prevent their running.

SEC. 2. If any such person shall violate the provisions of the preceeding section, he and his employer or employers, jointly and severally, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty dollars.

SEC. 3. It is hereby made the duty of each and every constable to enforce this ordinance.

SEC. 4. All horses so found running at large may be taken by said constable and held as contraband of war.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From The London Daily News.

The Truth at New Orleans.

The following is an extract from a private letter, dated New Orleans, May 30:

"The condition of this country, the now ripening fruit of the erroneous ideas of freedom obtaining here, is distressing today, and gives rise to the most dreadful fears for the future. This war is, I am convinced, based upon no social necessity, upon no real rivalry between the different sections of the country; it is the result of political madness, of a struggle between individuals for personal power and material advantages—individuals who make the weal of the country the pretense for obtaining their own ends. The press has lent itself to increase and continue the agitation, while tens of thousands of the reasonable citizens deplore and condemn it, being, like myself, convinced that one month of a warfare such as that now impending over us, will prove more disastrous, generally speaking, to the slave and freeman both, than a four years' government of the most anti-slavery party that ever could exist. But all are kept silent by the dread of "mob law," that specter of the present day.

Provisions have risen to three times their ordinary price; a barrel of flour of 200 pounds weight cost now fifteen dollars instead of five, and soon flour will not be to be had at all. The courts of law are closed until November, and personal security, as promised by the law, is an empty name. And how can or will a war be carried on? For the first requisite, soldiers, there is no sufficient or proper material here. The agricultural population, which in other countries furnishes the fighting masses, is here, of course, ineligible for the purpose, and ever requires armed power to keep it in order. There have been very alarming disturbances among the blacks; on more than one plantation, the assistance of the authorities has been called in to overcome the open resistance of the slaves; and an invasion from the north, especially if commanded by men like Montgomery from Kansas, or Lane, would, without doubt, be immediately followed by a general rising of the blacks. Thus, the supply of soldiers must come principally, if not exclusively, from among the populations of the towns—day laborers, inferior tradesmen, such as tailors, and cobblers, most of them married men with families, unaccustomed to the hardships inseparable from a state of war, and therefore ill adapted for active service. I know that the workhouses in this city are cleared night after night, and all men who can stand and walk are enlisted without inquiry or inspection into their fitness for military service. No medical staff is as yet appointed to any of the corps; the clothing provided for these soldiers is of the worst and most unfit description—in most cases consisting of course and loose flannel, which is not only easily destroyed, but promotes filth and vermin. I have seen letters from young men (some of very respectable and wealthy families) with their regiments at Pensacola, stating that they are fed on salt pork and beans; that they are in rags, and devoured by vermin; and that numbers of them are laid up with illness in private houses. About 3,000 men were encamped on the road to the lake Pontchartrain, and half in one fortnight a thousand sick. The few strong vigorous men who have enlisted may be fit food for powder; but will they be capable of executing without previous exercise or practice such strategic operations as can lead to any successful warfare? I leave you to judge of the chances in favor of the south, and will complete my attempt at depicting our condition by stating that trade and commerce are at a stand still, and the circulation of money is—nil!"

CULPABLE IMPATIENCE.—There is, in a few of our daily journals, a manifestation of impatience at what they call the slowness of Gen. Scott, which can be productive of nothing but injury to our cause, and to those who manifest this uneasy spirit.—At such a time, certainly, patriotism would require that personal griefs or spites should be swallowed up in love of country, and that however much we may dislike individuals connected with the government, we should not suffer that dislike to lead us to propagate misstatements concerning the action of the government, or attempt in any way to embarrass its plans or purposes.

Gen. Scott has distinguished himself for fifty years past as a military commander of extraordinary prudence, skill and foresight. He has never lost a battle, never thrown away an opportunity which could be made available for accomplishing his ultimate purpose, while at the same time he has been wonderfully chary of human life, and has preferred to execute his plans by measures which should compel the retreat and disorganization of his enemy, rather than by bloody and destructive battles. The great generals of Europe have all paid tribute to his high and commanding ability and prescience, and by the common testimony of the military men of Christendom, he ranks as a great Captain of the Age.

Nor is there the slightest evidence that time has impaired his intellectual powers or his judgment. Every step betrays the old sagacity, the cool deliberation, the thorough knowledge of what is needed for the successful prosecution of the war, and the steady forcing the enemy back, demoralized at every step, upon their own lines, with an iron rigor, which, like the imperceptibly moving walls of the fabled iron prison, though making but slow progress, will surely end in crushing out the life of the rebellion.

Depend upon it, Davis and Beauregard and Lee know, and shudder as they realize it, that every day is but hastening their irrevocable doom; and appreciating as they do the terrors of their position, they would gladly give all they had hoped for of glory, fame or wealth, to be placed where they were six months ago.

That a man of no military capacity should undertake to dictate to Gen. Scott what he shall do within a given time, and how he shall do it—shall attempt to insist that a city one hundred and thirty miles distant, on a route impeded by numerous batteries and obstructions, shall be taken within ten days, by marching fifty thousand green troops upon it, leaving, meantime, the National Capitol unprotected, may be good sensation journalism, but it is certainly very sublime impudence.—New York Examiner.

Hon. Edward A. Newton, of Pittsfield, Mass., has written an interesting letter on East India cotton. Mr. N. first visited India more than fifty years ago, and feels perfectly sure "that before the expiration of another decade of years, the world will be flooded with cotton from India."

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS VARDEN.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From The London Daily News.
The Truth at New Orleans.

The following is an extract from a private letter, dated New Orleans, May 30:

"The condition of this country, the now ripening fruit of the erroneous ideas of freedom obtaining here, is distressing today, and gives rise to the most dreadful fears for the future. This war is, I am convinced, based upon no social necessity, upon no real rivalry between the different sections of the country; it is the result of political madness, of a struggle between individuals for personal power and material advantages—individuals who make the weal of the country the pretense for obtaining their own ends. The press has lent itself to increase and continue the agitation, while tens of thousands of the reasonable citizens deplore and condemn it, being, like myself, convinced that one month of a warfare such as that now impending over us, will prove more disastrous, generally speaking, to the slave and freeman both, than a four years' government of the most anti-slavery party that ever could exist. But all are kept silent by the dread of "mob law," that specter of the present day.

Provisions have risen to three times their ordinary price; a barrel of flour of 200 pounds weight cost now fifteen dollars instead of five, and soon flour will not be to be had at all. The courts of law are closed until November, and personal security, as promised by the law, is an empty name. And how can or will a war be carried on? For the first requisite, soldiers, there is no sufficient or proper material here. The agricultural population, which in other countries furnishes the fighting masses, is here, of course, ineligible for the purpose, and ever requires armed power to keep it in order. There have been very alarming disturbances among the blacks; on more than one plantation, the assistance of the authorities has been called in to overcome the open resistance of the slaves; and an invasion from the north, especially if commanded by men like Montgomery from Kansas, or Lane, would, without doubt, be immediately followed by a general rising of the blacks. Thus, the supply of soldiers must come principally, if not exclusively, from among the populations of the towns—day laborers, inferior tradesmen, such as tailors, and cobblers, most of them married men with families, unaccustomed to the hardships inseparable from a state of war, and therefore ill adapted for active service. I know that the workhouses in this city are cleared night after night, and all men who can stand and walk are enlisted without inquiry or inspection into their fitness for military service. No medical staff is as yet appointed to any of the corps; the clothing provided for these soldiers is of the worst and most unfit description—in most cases consisting of course and loose flannel, which is not only easily destroyed, but promotes filth and vermin. I have seen letters from young men (some of very respectable and wealthy families) with their regiments at Pensacola, stating that they are fed on salt pork and beans; that they are in rags, and devoured by vermin; and that numbers of them are laid up with illness in private houses. About 3,000 men were encamped on the road to the lake Pontchartrain, and had in one fortnight a thousand sick. The few strong vigorous men who have enlisted may be fit food for powder; but will they be capable of executing without previous exercise or practice such strategic operations as can lead to any successful warfare? I leave you to judge of the chances in favor of the south, and will complete my attempt at depicting our condition by stating that trade and commerce are at a stand still, and the circulation of money is—nil."

CULPABLE IMPATIENCE.—There is, in a few of our daily journals, a manifestation of impatience at what they call the slowness of Gen. Scott, which can be productive of nothing but injury to our cause, and to those who manifest this uneasy spirit.—At such a time, certainly, patriotism would require that personal griefs or spites should be swallowed up in love of country, and that however much we may dislike individuals connected with the government, we should not suffer that dislike to lead us to propagate misstatements concerning the action of the government, or attempt in any way to embarrass its plans or purposes.

Gen. Scott has distinguished himself for fifty years past as a military commander of extraordinary prudence, skill and foresight. He has never lost a battle, never thrown away an opportunity which could be made available for accomplishing his ultimate purpose, while at the same time he has been wonderfully chary of human life, and has preferred to execute his plans by measures which should compel the retreat and disorganization of his enemy, rather than by bloody and destructive battles. The great generals of Europe have all paid tribute to his high and commanding ability and prescience, and by the common testimony of the military men of Christendom, he ranks as a great Captain of the Age.

Nor is there the slightest evidence that time has impaired his intellectual powers or his judgment. Every step betrays the old sagacity, the cool deliberation, the thorough knowledge of what is needed for the successful prosecution of the war, and the steady forcing the enemy back, demoralized at every step, upon their own lines, with an iron rigor, which, like the imperceptibly moving walls of the fabled iron prison, though making but slow progress, will surely end in crushing out the life of the rebellion.

Depend upon it, Davis and Beauregard and Lee know, and shudder as they realize it, that every day is but hastening their irrevocable doom; and appreciating as they do the terrors of their position, they would gladly give all they had hoped for of glory, fame or wealth, to be placed where they were six months ago.

That a man of no military capacity should undertake to dictate to Gen. Scott what he shall do within a given time, and how he shall do it—shall attempt to insist that a city one hundred and thirty miles distant, on a route impeded by numerous batteries and obstructions, shall be taken within ten days, by marching fifty thousand green troops upon it, leaving, meantime, the National Capitol unprotected, may be good sensation journalism, but it is certainly very sublime impudence.—New York Examiner.

Hon. Edward A. Newton, of Pittsfield, Mass., has written an interesting letter on East India cotton. Mr. N. first visited India more than fifty years ago, and feels perfectly sure "that before the expiration of another decade of years, the world will be flooded with cotton from India."

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:
I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

The President's Message.

The massage of President Lincoln needs little comment from the press. It speaks for itself and the people. It is "Old Abe's" production throughout, having his peculiarities of style, and terseness of argument.

The message explains many things of which the people have been in doubt. It tells us why Forts Sumter and Pickens were not reinforced at once. It was not from any indisposition on the part of the government, but from inability; and the President gives us the reasons. The people will recognize the explanation as valid and justifiable.

From the statement in relation to the call for volunteers for three years, the increase of the regular army and navy, and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, we perceive that the President has been in doubt about his powers. "These measures," says he, "whether strictly legal or not, were ventured upon what appeared to be a popular demand for a public necessity, trusting then as now, that congress would ratify them."

It is probable that Mr. Lincoln desired this ratification, before he entered fully upon an advance movement of the whole army to crush the rebels. He undoubtedly felt that the authority of congress should be given for these acts, "not strictly legal," before he went further; and the preparation for offensive measures had outrun his expectation after he called congress to assemble on the 4th of July. The army is ready, and waiting for congress to legalize the acts of the president. When this is done, we shall probably witness a vigorous advance upon the traitors from all directions. This we conceive to to be the explanation of the present apparent hesitation to go forward; and not because the government is waiting for compromise, as has been feared by some.

The message is perfectly explicit in relation to compromising with the traitors.—"No compromise in this could be a cure," is a doctrine that will be responded to by all. The traitors are trying to destroy the government, and the executive is endeavoring to enforce the laws and preserve the constitution. Herein there is no room for a compromise; and, as Mr. Lincoln says, "having chosen our course without guilt and with a pure purpose, let us renew our trust in God, and go forward without fear, and with manly hearts."

We conceive, however, that the argument in relation to state rights was not needed. The message would have been more perfect without it. Secession is state rights run mad, just an obliteration of state lines, and a concentration of all power in the national government, as we have seen suggested, would be federalism run mad. Neither are right, and no argument is needed to enforce so plain a proposition.

The call for $400,000,000 and 400,000 men appears large, but it is well to give the president ample means to put down this rebellion. If the whole is not needed, it will not be used. It is possible, too, that we may have to attend to certain external enemies, who appear none too friendly just now. Let us be prepared for all emergencies.

JIM GREEN TAKEN.—Gov. Wood, at the head of about twenty troops, left Quincy on Friday and went over into Missouri, near Monticello, and captured the notorious Jim Green, ex-United States Senator. When taken he was making as good time as horse-flesh and the state of Missouri roads would permit. The report that he had escaped on foot, leaving his horse in the woods, appears to be incorrect. He had either regained his horse or "borrowed" one on his way. When the troops came up with him, they were on the full run, and fired shots at the fugitive. His horse threw him off, and he was taken without trouble, and brought back to Canton and placed in the college building, which the federal troops are using as barracks for the present.

☞ Attorney General Bates has prepared an opinion at some length, concerning the writ of habeas corpus, special reference being had to the Merryman case. He holds that the functions of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government are so distinct and final that neither can clash with the other, and that the previous judgment by the supreme court against the Executive's right of suspending the writ of habeas corpus, would not continue a binding precedent. The action of the President is fully endorsed in the document.

☞ General army order No. 40, constitutes the state of Illinois and the states and territories west of the Mississippi river and on this side of the Rocky Mountains, including New Mexico, to a separate military command, to be known as the western department, under command of Maj. General Fremont, U. S. A., with its head-quarters at St. Louis.

☞ The duty on paper has been abolished in England.

Breckinridge in the Senate.

It will be noticed that John C. Breckinridge occupies his place in the senate, and that the political majority in that body have placed him upon the committee on foreign relations. The country will be suprised at this. Unless common fame belies him, Breckinridge has been doing his best to carry the state of Kentucky into the southern confederacy. He was the candidate of the traitors for the presidency, and since the election, has openly taken the stump against the efforts of the government to put down the treason of Jeff. Davis. He is more than suspected of disloyalty; he is generally believed, even in his own state, to sympathize in the attempt now making to dissolve the Union by force. What propriety is there, if such is the case, in placing this man upon the most important committee in the senate, where he will be in a position to learn all the secrets relating to our intercourse with foreign governments? Our foreign affairs are in a delicate condition, and at this time need the earnest and faithful attention of loyal men, instead of the prying and hostile observation of those who will not hesitate to give information to traitors of any difficulty with foreign countries, which may be brought to the attention of this committee. It would be far better to expel Breckinridge from the Senate, instead of honoring him with a position upon the most important committee of that body. It is within our memory that Joshua R. Giddings was expelled from the house for presenting a petition for the dissolution of the Union, although he at the time protested that he had no sympathy with the petitioners, justifying his act upon the ground of the right of the people to petition upon all subjects connected with the government. But here we have a member of the senate who is in favor of dissolving the Union, and who has made public efforts to accomplish that treasonable object. We believe he ought forthwith to be expelled from the senate; but the least that body can do is to strike his name from the committee on foreign affairs, and to discountenance his presence by withholding all confidence from him as a member of that body. How can congress expect to clear the country of traitors, when it will not purge itself from them?

Natural Sciences in the State University.

The cultivation of the natural sciences in our State University under the able instruction of Prof. Carr, is one of the best features of that institution. We learn from the remarks of a correspondent in the Argus in relation to the recent examination at the university, that this department still retains a prominence, where it has so long held a front rank. Prof. Carr is one of the best lecturers in the country, and as instructor of youth he has few superiors. Ardently devoted to the investigation of all subjects connected with his department, he has the rare faculty of imparting to others the abundant stores of his own mind, in a manner so plain that comprehension is easy, while his enthusiasm invests every subject, however dry in detail, with almost the interest of romance. In regard to the method of instruction, the correspondent alluded to says:—

Every member of the class not only appeared to have a good understanding of the principles of Chemistry, Geology and Botony, but what is far better, they seemed to have imbibed a thorough love for these studies, and to enter into them with ardent zeal. This is doubtless owing in part to the method of instruction. They first listen to the lecture of the professor; they then investigate the subject further by the aid of text books; and on the following day they discuss the same subject themselves. Thus by continually telling what they know, they not only come to know it more thoroughly, but they also acquire, as the examination well showed, a high degree of proficiency in that highest of all arts, the art of communicating our thoughts to others.

But whatever may be the cause, the fact is one that we have reason to be proud of, and one which I wish all of the young men of our state could know and appreciate.—That there is scarcely an institution in the country which affords so good advantages for securing a good, practical knowledge of the natural sciences.

This we believe to be entirely true, and we second the wish of this correspondent, that every young man who is not able to take a longer course, could be persuaded to spend at least one year there, in the study of natural science. It would make him not only a wiser, a better, and a happier man, but also a healthier and a richer one.

In this connection, we desire to make a suggestion in relation to the university: It has been painfully evident, while our state was using every effort to supply its quota of the grand army for the defense of the republic, that it was impossible to find officers of the requisite capacity to command our troops—why should we not introduce military instruction into our university, as a part of its course? Military drill would be the best kind of physical exercise for the young, and being attractive as well as of practical utility, would induce constant attention to it. We merely make the suggestion without designing to enter into the subject further at this time.

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern arrived at Farther Point, on Saturday. Breadstuffs are firmer.

Lord Chancellor Campbell died suddenly from a rapture of a blood-vessel.

The Sultan of Turkey died on the 25th. He is succeeded by his brother.

Sir James Fergusen, in the house of commons condemned the reinforcements to Canada.

D'Iserali also thought the government was incurring serious responsibilities.

Lord Palmerston defended the act of the government as the usual precautionary measure of all Governments in the immediate vicinity of hostilities. The step indicated no distrust of the faith of the northern states, and no want of confidence in Canada. The time was fit and proper, because reinforcements can only be sent to Canada in the summer.

The loss by the conflagration in London was over £2,000,000. Some estimate it as high as £4,000,000; mainly insured.

The recognition of the Kingdom of Italy by France is formally announced.

☞ The Philadelphia Press says that the Prince Napoleon and his wife, after making an eastern tour, will visit the United States.

Important Movements.

We regret that the thunder storm this afternoon prevented the reception of telegraphic dispatches, for we expected some news worth publishing. If the secessionists don't run away, there will be, (if there has not already been,) a fight of some magnitude in the neighborhood of Winchester. The rebel Generals Jackson and Johnston have effected a junction, and a large detachment has moved from Manassas to their aid. They will have about 35,000, and if Col. Stone unites his column of 4,000 federal troops from the neighborhood of Harper's Ferry with Gen. Patterson, he will have about the same number; we may therefore expect a decisive battle, or a footrace very soon.

The Fourth at Fort Atkinson.

The celebration at Fort Atkinson on the Fourth was one of the most appropriate and best conducted attractions it has ever been my good fortune to attend. The arrangements were ample and perfect, and were in the true picnic style. Hon. Dwight Foster was president of the day, Joseph Winslow and Harry Ingerson, vice presidents; Rev. S. S. Bicknell, chaplain; H. H. Wilds, marshall; Newton Jones, as'st marshal; M. Paris M'Laughlin, toast master.

The procession formed in front of the Green Mountain House, and marched to the grove of Milo Jones, Esq., escorted by the Fort Atkinson brass band, which discoursed first rate music. At the grove, a stand and seats were provided, and five long tables were loaded with the choicest viands, in quantities to suit the largest capacity. The exercises on the ground were: Prayer by the chaplain, music by the band, reading the declaration of independence by J. K. Purdy, and oration by H. N. Comstock, of Janesville, after which six hundred ladies and gentlemen sat down to dinner.

One very interesting feature of this celebration was the presence of thirty-four charmingly beautiful young ladies, tastefully dressed in red, white and blue, representing the thirty-four states of the American Union. The presence of this galaxy of beauty, intelligence and patriotism, brought forcibly to one's mind the sublime beauties of this grand temple of liberty which our fathers reared amid scenes of carnage and blood.

The proceeds of the dinner were donated to Messrs. Proctor & Head, to aid them in rebuilding their flouring mill at the Fort, which has recently been destroyed, and on which there was no insurance.

Another feature of the celebration was, every one of the three thousand seemed to have come to worship at the altar of liberty, and there to pledge anew their devotion to their country.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.—The Monticello made a reconnoisance up James River on the 5th inst. Five miles from Newport News she discovered a rebel force of about 7,000 on the shore. She opened a brisk fire upon them, and eight companies were sent by land to sustain her. About 5 o'clock in the morning 25 of Hawkins' Zouaves encountered a rebel force, supposed to number about 150, including 25 cavalry and one field-piece, seven miles from Newport News. It is reported that three of the rebels were shot, and also six of Hawkins' Zouaves.—The latter sent for reinforcements, and five companies were sent to sustain them.

MILITARY.—Commissions have been issued to Thomas O. Bigney as captain, Henry M. Balls 1st lieutenant, and O. P. Lacy as 2d lieutenant of the Orfordville volunteers.

Also to Chas. End as captain, John Heninger as 1st lieutenant and F. W. Pindark-elear as 2d lieutenant, of the Mayville Rifles.

UNCONDITIONAL UNION MEN.—The citizens of Horsetown, California, have raised the Stars and Stripes on a tall pole near the bridge over Clear Creek, and just beyond the flag and staff they have erected a gibbet, with this inscription: "Salute the flag unconditionally or hang!"

DROWNING OF CAPT. WILSON'S SON.—A dispatch has been received in Milwaukee, announcing that Robert Wilson, only son of the late Capt. John Wilson, of Lady Elgin memory, was drowned while bathing in the vicinity of Cleveland on Monday. Mrs. Wilson, the measure of whose afflictions is thus filled so overflowingly, was stopping with friends in Buffalo when the melancholy accident happened. The deceased son was in his fourteenth year, and is said to have been a worthy son of his noble hearted father.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT CAMP UTLEY.—A fatal accident occurred at Camp Utley, Racine, Saturday morning. Chas. Preston, of Beloit, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, by a private named Bal Daes, both members of the Jefferson City Guards. It seems that Preston was on guard, and his musket was lying on the ground, when Bal Daes picked it up and pointed it at Preston, and snapped it, thinking it was not loaded, as there was no cap on the tube, when it went off. The ball passed through his heart. Preston lived in Beloit. Daes lives in Racine.

SUICIDE AT MADISON.—Mr. Frederick Brasser, a bookbinder, in the employ of Messrs. Bliss, Eberhard & Festner, at Madison, committed suicide on Thursday night last by shooting himself with a double-barreled shot gun. He was found early the next morning, at the head of the first flight of stairs leading to the bindery, and although the body was still warm, it was supposed that he shot himself about midnight. He was about 28 years of age. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married but three or four weeks—she being his second wife. He married his first wife in Germany, and came over here, leaving her there. It is said that he had reason to suppose she had died, and so he married again.—But recently his first wife confronted him and his second wife, having come over with her father from the old country. The matter was arranged, however, with the first wife and her father, but still it is supposed this had something to do with his suicide.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, July 6.

The substance of the news by morning report is that a forward movement is being made in good earnest.

It is said that Gen. Johnston of the rebel forces is disposed to make a stand at last. He is directly in front of Gen. Patterson's army, 7 miles off, with his command consisting of 10,000 men, of which 600 are cavalry.

By Sunday Fairfax will no doubt be in federal possession, and by a week from that day our troops will encamp at Manassas.

It is not believed here (Washington) that the rebels will make any stand at Manassas Junction.

Colt received on order from the war department for 25,000 Minnie muskets.

The session of the senate is growing animated, and candidates for clerk increase daily. Gen. DeWitt Clinton Clark will doubtless be elected. Col. Forney is making vigorous efforts for the position.

Robert Morris of Philadelphia has been appointed chief clerk of the house by Mr. Ethridge.

Times correspondent says: Our troops continue to cross to Virginia, but does not believe there will be an advance for some days. A general movement is to occur early in the coming week, but the precise time will, of course, be made to correspond to movements of the divisions of Gens. McClellan and Patterson.

Since the rank of major general has been conferred upon Gen. Lyon, of Missouri, it is probable that Mr. Blair will be promoted to a brigadier general, and will soon take the field.

Mr. Carlisle in the house received a dispatch from Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, today, announcing that two Ohio regiments had surprised a nest of rebels at Buckhannon, Va., capturing 400, killing 30, and seizing 200 horses.

BALTIMORE, July 5.

Col. Stone is reported to be at Sandy Hook with 4,000 troops. He will be joined by 1,000 more to-morrow and cross the Potomac to aid Gen. Patterson, who is at Martinsburg with 22,000 men.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale moved that the senate proceed to elect an assistant door-keeper. Forty votes were cast—Isaac Bassett 30, Chas. Jones 8, scattering 2. Mr. Bassett was declared elected.

Mr. Wilson presented several bills, of which he gave notice on Thursday.

Mr. Grimes moved that the bill to promote the efficiency of the army be referred to a special committee of nine.

After discussion the bill was referred to a special committee of nine, consisting of Messrs. Wilson, Hale, Latham, Sherman, Powell, Cowan, King, Kennedy, Howe.

The other bills were referred to the military committee.

Mr. Polk presented the credentials of Waldo P. Johnson, senator elect of Missouri, who took the oath. Adjourned.

The Vice President announced standing committees as follows:

Foreign Relations.—Sumner, Collamer, Doolittle, Wilmot, Browning, Polk, Breckinridge.

Military Affairs and Militia.—Wilson, King, Baker, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Rice and Latham.

Finance.—Fessenden, Simmons, Sherman, Howe, Hunter, Pearce, Bright, McDougal.

Naval Affairs.—Hale, Grimes, Foot, Sherman, Thompson, Nicholson and McDougal.

Commerce.—Chandler, King, Morrill, Wilson, TenEyck, Saulsbury, Johnson.

Judiciary.—Trumbull, Foster, TenEyck, Cowan, Harris, Bayard, Powell, Clingman.

Post Office and Post Roads.—Cowan, Dixon, Wade, Trumbell, Rice, Bright, Latham.

Revolutionary Claims.—King, Chandler, Wilkinson, Howe, Nesmith.

Public Lands.—Harlan, Bingham, Clark, Pomeroy, Johnson, Rice, Nesmith.

Claims.—Clark, Simmons, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy, Polk, Bayard.

District of Columbia.—Grimes, Dixon, Morrill, Wade, Anthony, Kennedy, Powell.

Indian Affairs.—Doolittle, Wilkinson, Cowan, Foster, Lane of Kansas, Harlan, Nesmith.

Courts, Patents and the Patent Office.—Simmons, Sumner, Cowan, Thompson, Saulsbury.

Pensions.—Foster, Bingham, Lane of Indiana, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy and Saulsbury.

Public Buildings and Grounds.—Foote, Anthony, Chandler, Bright, Kennedy, Wade, Wilkinson, Hale, Browning, Johnson of Tennessee, Bragg.

Engrossed Bills.—Lane of Indiana, Morrill, Latham.

To audit and contract contingent expenses of the Senate.—Dixon, Clark, Johnson of Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

It has been decided in republican senatorial caucus to push business forward with all possible rapidity and then adjourn.

War appropriations are likely to be made at once.

Senator Wilson this morning introduced bills for an increase of the army. The general opinion is that they will be put on their passage with as little delay as possible.

Yesterday, as one of the rebel regiments was advancing on Fairfax, one of their own regiments mistook them for regulars and commenced firing on them. They killed eight and wounded several.

Another assassination was perpetrated on a fire zouave who was killed on the street by a concealed foe.

On good authority advices from our ministers at London and Paris, give the most emphatic assurances that England and France will fully respect our blockade, cotton or no cotton.

Evening Post's special.—It is rumored that Crittenden and Wyckliffe, of Kentucky, are preparing a plan of compromise to be presented to congress. It is, however, quite certain that no compromise measures would receive votes in congress, even if it were received at all.

Six guns were planted at lower Vienna, and six more close by Fairfax, on the road from Winchester to Alexandria.

Sen. Chandler's bill to confiscate property of rebel officers, is a bomb shell in the ranks of the enemy.

NEW YORK, July 6.

The report of the secretary of the navy states the force in commission as being eighty-two vessels, carrying eleven hundred guns, besides several steamers and other small crafts temporarily in the service. Twenty-three gun boats are now contracted for.

Since the 4th of March two hundred and fifty-nine officers have resigned and been dismissed.

The report recommends the appointment of a director of ordinance, to have supervision of details of that branch of that service; and also for the appointment of a board to enquire into the expediency of building iron steamers; also an increase of the clerical force of the department; also for the appointment of an assistant secretary.

Estimates for service, $30,309,520.

CAIRO, July 6.

Government has decided to accept all artillery companies for three years or for the war, as they prefer.

A government boat, with Gen. Prentiss on board, made an excursion down the river as far as Norfolk this afternoon. The result of the expedition is not yet known.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

Gen. Wilson added a section to his bill for organizing a volunteer force. It authorizes the colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, adjutant and quarter master of each regiment to frank letters for troops under their command; number of regiment, and campany, and the name of the writer must be superscribed on each letter.

High authority says 12,000 troops crossed over the Potomac within 24 hours.

Additional to Great Eastern.—The Times continues to maintain that Americans have no ground for their abuse of England, beyond mortification at England's lack of appreciation. It says that the northern people have thrown themselves into a passion, and must be left to recover.

Sir Archibald Allison, in a letter to C. M. Clay, contends that the American constitution is a failure, and recommends national church and monarchy as a remedy.

The conflagration in London telegraphed by the Persia was the most disastrous that has occurred for generations. Some estimate the extent of loss from 3 to 4 millions. Some articles of produce advanced in consequence of the great quantities consumed.

LEAVENWORTH, July 6.

Gov. Jackson's secretary has called a session of the Missouri legislature to meet at Sarcoxit, seventy miles south of Fort Scott, for the purpose of passing an ordinance of secession. The rebels in western Missouri, were concentrating at that point, and fugitives from Jasper county were hourly arriving at Fort Scott, and report terrible state of affairs in that section.

It is reported that Dr. Wilson, Dr. Vellanan and other leading Union men have been hung. In some cases escaping fugitives had been followed into Kansas by secessionists.

Montgomery with 400 men entered Missouri on the 27th, but his object has not transpired.

FORT MONROE, July 5.

Col. Baker's regiment arrived from Baltimore this morning and have encamped this side Hampton creek. Col. Baker it was supposed would be made brigadier general.

Col. Duryea was yesterday promoted to rank of brigadier general, command at Camp Hamilton.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

Sunday was a great day in Washington. Telegraphic advices to Gen. Scott from Gen. Patterson, at Martinsburg, say a great force is coming from Manassas Junction to reinforce the rebels under Johnston and Jackson, who have formed a union near Winchester. Patterson is in danger of being driven back from Jackson, and asks for troops. Ten regiments were going to-day and last night, mostly New Yorkers, by rail to the Relay House and Frederick.—The column under Gen. Sanford arrived at Martinsburg three days ago.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. McClellan. It is supposed he has not had time to come to Patterson's support. This movement of the enemy will be met by an advance of the whole of our Virginia force towards Manassas Junction at the earliest moment—possibly within two days. It is hoped that the next movement from the Junction will be great enough to enable Gen. McDowell to force his way between these divisions and shut in the advancing rebel column between Patterson's and McDowell's commands, thus compelling a fight or a footrace or a surrender. It is thought that Col. Stone at Harper's Ferry will be forced to take the Maryland side and join Sanford on his advance. Probably the first battle will be between Winchester and Martinsburg, with 35,000 on each side.

The streets are full of troops, baggage wagons and horses, all day. The boys march with high spirits, panting for a fight. They are filing past my window now, singing in great glee.

The feeling here to-day is that if Patterson is driven back the enemy will get in our rear and derange the plans. Patterson has 21,000, Stone 4,000, and Sanford 10,000.—They ought not to be beaten.

There is talk that the increasing of the regular army will be forbidden by Congress.

A report on the streets that a fight is going on at Fairfax, and a report from Baltimore that Patterson is beaten and retreating, are canards though they may reach you from New York.

Gov. Yates has appointed Tom Marshall of Coles county, colonel of the cavalry regiment. It is a good appointment. They are both here asking equipments from the government.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

OSHKOSH, July 8.

Destructive tornado swept over this city at 2 o'clock this morning, unroofiing houses in every direction, blowing down trees, and doing immense damage.

Large flouring mill of Green & Powers is unroofed, and the upper portion demolished.

Store of Bigger & Hill unroofed and filled with water, damaging goods to a large amount.

Three stores on Ferry street have their entire front walls blown down.

The steamer Shawanaw City, lying at the dock, is a complete wreck, her upper works being entirely blown away.

Steamer Berlin City has smoke stacks, pilot house and upper cabin carried away, and otherwise damaged.

Houses in all parts of the city were lifted up and carried several feet, in some cases being turned completely around, and some entirely demolished.

Wind was accompanied by a violent hail storm, not a house in the city but has sustained more or less damage.

Lightning was terrific, striking in several places.

No loss of life as yet reported.

☞ A man named Semple, who is connected with one of the oldest and most respectable families of Covington, Ky., but now degenerated into a mere sot, was sold at public auction by the sheriff, on the 22d, for invetèrate vagrancy. Andy Herod, the jailer, became his purchaser at the sum of one dime, and will have an opportunity to get his money back by Semple's services until the first of Seprember.

☞ By a letter from Pensacola, under date of June 24th of June, we learn that the Vanderbilt had arrived there with Billy Wilson's New York Zouaves.

Louisiana, with a free population of 354,000, has sent over 12,000 troops to the seat of war. The governor has refused to allow any more to leave the state.

☞ It is said at Washington that no member of the cabinet saw the message of the president until after it was delivered.—Those portions of it recommending a $400,000,000 loan, and making the distinction between the patriotism of the common soldiers and officers, were received with immense applause, on the floor and in the galleries.

MATHIAS POINT.—It seems that the rebels have strongly fortified themselves at Mathias Point, since the failure of Captain Ward to dislodge them, and their batteries now command the Potomac. For the present, the navigation of that river by our vessels is rendered extra hazardous, if not wholly impossible, and what gives the fact more prominence, is the additional statement that Secretary Cameron, who had been to Fortress Monroe in company with Gen. Fremont, cannot get back that way. If so, he is caught in his own trap. The War department, from the first, failed to appreciate Captain Ward's idea of the importance of this Point, and even now, while Mr. Cameron is absent, we see the same spirit manifested in his department. They will confer with Secretary Welles about sending a force, it is said, "in a few days;" meanwhile hoping the rebels may be called off by movements elsewhere.

The position is this: Mathias Point is about sixty miles below Washington, and twenty below Acquia Creek. It is a bluff, well wooded, and just the place for concealed or any other batteries. Besides, the river makes an abrupt angle here and the channel runs in close to the shore, while on the Maryland side it spreads out broad and shallow. The Point is in fact a peninsula, commanding the river approaches in either direction. Back of it are the entrenchment lines of the enemy around Fredericksburg and along the Rappahannan. Capt. Ward, as a shrewd officer, early saw the importance of holding it, and unsupported as he was by troops, he perilled and lost his life in the attempt to establish a foothold there, ere the rebels should have rendered it too late. If their batteries operate upon Mr. Cameron's own transport vessel, what a calamity it would be, surely!—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Cameron was obliged to come back to Washington via. Baltimore, as we learn by telegraphic despatches.

MARRIED.

The President's Message.

The massage of President Lincoln needs little comment from the press. It speaks for itself and the people. It is "Old Abe's" production througbout, having his peculiarities of style, and terseness of argument.

The message explains many things of which the people have been in doubt. It tells us why Forts Sumter and Pickens were not reinforced at once. It was not from any indisposition on the part of the government, but from inability; and the President gives us the reasons. The people will recognize the explanation as valid and justifiable.

From the statement in relation to the call for volunteers for three years, the increase of the regular army and navy, and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, we perceive that the President has been in doubt about his powers. "These measures," says he, "whether strictly legal or not, were ventured upon what appeared to be a popular demand for a public necessity, trusting then as now, that congress would ratify them."

It is probable that Mr. Lincoln desired this ratification, before he entered fully upon an advance movement of the whole army to crush the rebels. He undoubtedly felt that the authority of congress should be given for these acts, "not strictly legal," before he went further; and the preparation for offensive measures had outrun his expectation after he called congress to assemble on the 4th of July. The army is ready, and waiting for congress to legalize the acts of the president. When this is done, we shall probably witness a vigorous advance upon the traitors from all directions. This we conceive to to be the explanation of the present apparent hesitation to go forward; and not because the government is waiting for compromise, as has been feared by some.

The message is perfectly explicit in relation to compromising with the traitors.—"No compromise in this could be a cure," is a doctrine that will be responded to by all. The traitors are trying to destroy the government, and the executive is endeavoring to enforce the laws and preserve the constitution. Herein there is no room for a compromise; and, as Mr. Lincoln says, "having chosen our course without guilt and with a pure purpose, let us renew our trust in God, and go forward without fear, and with manly hearts."

We conceive, however, that the argument in relation to state rights was not needed. The message would have been more perfect without it. Secession is state rights run mad, just an obliteration of state lines, and a concentration of all power in the national government, as we have seen suggested, would be federalism run mad. Neither are right, and no argument is needed to enforce so plain a proposition.

The call for $400,000,000 and 400,000 men appears large, but it is well to give the president ample means to put down this rebellion. If the whole is not needed, it will not be used. It is possible, too, that we may have to attend to certain external enemies, who appear none too friendly just now. Let us be prepared for all emergencies.

JIM GREEN TAKEN.—Gov. Wood, at the head of about twenty troops, left Quincy on Friday and went over into Missouri, near Monticello, and captured the notorious Jim Green, ex-United States Senator. When taken he was making as good time as horse-flesh and the state of Missouri roads would permit. The report that he had escaped on foot, leaving his horse in the woods, appears to be incorrect. He had either regained his horse or "borrowed" one on his way. When the troops came up with him, they were on the full run, and fired shots at the fugitive. His horse threw him off, and he was taken without trouble, and brought back to Canton and placed in the college building, which the federal troops are using as barracks for the present.

☞ Attorney General Bates has prepared an opinion at some length, concerning the writ of habeas corpus, special reference being had to the Merryman case. He holds that the functions of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government are so distinct and final that neither can clash with the other, and that the previous judgment by the supreme court against the Executive's right of suspending the writ of habeas corpus, would not continue a binding precedent. The action of the President is fully endorsed in the document.

☞ General army order No. 40, constitutes the state of Illinois and the states and territories west of the Mississippi river and on this side of the Rocky Mountains, including New Mexico, to a separate military command, to be known as the western department, under command of Maj. General Fremont, U. S. A., with its head-quarters at St. Louis.

☞ The duty on paper has been abolished in England.

Breckinridge in the Senate.

It will be noticed that John C. Breckinridge occupies his place in the senate, and that the political majority in that body have placed him upon the committee on foreign relations. The country will be suprised at this. Unless common fame belies him, Breckinridge has been doing his best to carry the state of Kentucky into the southern confederacy. He was the candidate of the traitors for the presidency, and since the election, has openly taken the stump against the efforts of the government to put down the treason of Jeff. Davis. He is more than suspected of disloyalty; he is generally believed, even in his own state, to sympathize in the attempt now making to dissolve the Union by force. What propriety is there, if such is the case, in placing this man upon the most important committee in the senate, where he will be in a position to learn all the secrets relating to our intercourse with foreign governments? Our foreign affairs are in a delicate condition, and at this time need the earnest and faithful attention of loyal men, instead of the prying and hostile observation of those who will not hesitate to give information to traitors of any difficulty with foreign countries, which may be brought to the attention of this committee. It would be far better to expel Breckinridge from the Senate, instead of honoring him with a position upon the most important committee of that body. It is within our memory that Joshua R. Giddings was expelled from the house for presenting a petition for the dissolution of the Union, although he at the time protested that he had no sympathy with the petitioners, justifying his act upon the ground of the right of the people to petition upon all subjects connected with the government. But here we have a member of the senate who is in favor of dissolving the Union, and who has made public efforts to accomplish that treasonable object. We believe he ought forthwith to be expelled from the senate; but the least that body can do is to strike his name from the committee on foreign affairs, and to discountenance his presence by withholding all confidence from him as a member of that body. How can congress expect to clear the country of traitors, when it will not purge itself from them?

Natural Sciences in the State University.

The cultivation of the natural sciences in our State University under the able instruction of Prof. Carr, is one of the best features of that institution. We learn from the remarks of a correspondent in the Argus in relation to the recent examination at the university, that this department still retains a prominence, where it has so long held a front rank. Prof. Carr is one of the best lecturers in the country, and as instructor of youth he has few superiors. Ardently devoted to the investigation of all subjects connected with his department, he has the rare faculty of imparting to others the abundant stores of his own mind, in a manner so plain that comprehension is easy, while his enthusiasm invests every subject, however dry in detail, with almost the interest of romance. In regard to the method of instruction, the correspondent alluded to says:—

Every member of the class not only appeared to have a good understanding of the principles of Chemistry, Geology and Botony, but what is far better, they seemed to have imbibed a thorough love for these studies, and to enter into them with ardent zeal. This is doubtless owing in part to the method of instruction. They first listen to the lecture of the professor; they then investigate the subject further by the aid of text books; and on the following day they discuss the same subject themselves. Thus by continually telling what they know, they not only come to know it more thoroughly, but they also acquire, as the examination well showed, a high degree of proficiency in that highest of all arts, the art of communicating our thoughts to others.

But whatever may be the cause, the fact is one that we have reason to be proud of, and one which I wish all of the young men of our state could know and appreciate.—That there is scarcely an institution in the country which affords so good advantages for securing a good, practical knowledge of the natural sciences.

This we believe to be entirely true, and we second the wish of this correspondent, that every young man who is not able to take a longer course, could be persuaded to spend at least one year there, in the study of natural science. It would make him not only a wiser, a better, and a happier man, but also a healthier and a richer one.

In this connection, we desire to make a suggestion in relation to the university: It has been painfully evident, while our state was using every effort to supply its quota of the grand army for the defense of the republic, that it was impossible to find officers of the requisite capacity to command our troops—why should we not introduce military instruction into our university, as a part of its course? Military drill would be the best kind of physical exercise for the young, and being attractive as well as of practical utility, would induce constant attention to it. We merely make the suggestion without designing to enter into the subject further at this time.

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern arrived at Farther Point, on Saturday. Breadstuffs are firmer.

Lord Chancellor Campbell died suddenly from a rupture of a blood-vessel.

The Sultan of Turkey died on the 25th. He is succeeded by his brother.

Sir James Fergusen, in the house of commons condemned the reinforcements to Canada.

D'Iserali also thought the government was incurring serious responsibilities.

Lord Palmerston defended the act of the government as the usual precautionary measure of all Governments in the immediate vicinity of hostilities. The step indicated no distrust of the faith of the northern states, and no want of confidence in Canada. The time was fit and proper, because reinforcements can only be sent to Canada in the summer.

The loss by the conflagration in London was over £2,000,000. Some estimate it as high as £4,000,000; mainly insured.

The recognition of the Kingdom of Italy by France is formally announced.

☞ The Philadelphia Press says that the Prince Napoleon and his wife, after making an eastern tour, will visit the United States.

Important Movements.

We regret that the thunder storm this afternoon prevented the reception of telegraphic dispatches, for we expected some news worth publishing. If the secessionists don't run away, there will be, (if there has not already been,) a fight of some magnitude in the neighborhood of Winchester. The rebel Generals Jackson and Johnston have effected a junction, and a large detachment has moved from Manassas to their aid. They will have about 35,000, and if Col. Stone unites his column of 4,000 federal troops from the neighborhood of Harper's Ferry with Gen. Patterson, he will have about the same number; we may therefore expect a decisive battle, or a foot-race very soon.

The Fourth at Fort Atkinson.

The celebration at Fort Atkinson on the Fourth was one of the most appropriate and best conducted attractions it has ever been my good fortune to attend. The arrangements were ample and perfect, and were in the true picnic style. Hon. Dwight Foster was president of the day, Joseph Winslow and Harry Ingerson, vice presidents; Rev. S. S. Bicknell, chaplain; H. H. Wilds, marshall; Newton Jones, as'st marshal; M. Paris M'Laughlin, toast master.

The procession formed in front of the Green Mountain House, and marched to the grove of Milo Jones, Esq., escorted by the Fort Atkinson brass band, which discoursed first rate music. At the grove, a stand and seats were provided, and five long tables were loaded with the choicest viands, in quantities to suit the largest capacity. The exercises on the ground were: Prayer by the chaplain, music by the band, reading the declaration of independence by J. K. Purdy, and oration by H. N. Comstock, of Janesville, after which six hundred ladies and gentlemen sat down to dinner.

One very interesting feature of this celebration was the presence of thirty-four charmingly beautiful young ladies, tastefully dressed in red, white and blue, representing the thirty-four states of the American Union. The presence of this galaxy of beauty, intelligence and patriotism, brought forcibly to one's mind the sublime beauties of this grand temple of liberty which our fathers reared amid scenes of carnage and blood.

The proceeds of the dinner were donated to Messrs. Proctor & Head, to aid them in rebuilding their flouring mill at the Fort, which has recently been destroyed, and on which there was no insurance.

Another feature of the celebration was, every one of the three thousand seemed to have come to worship at the altar of liberty, and there to pledge anew their devotion to their country. *

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.—The Monticello made a reconnoisance up James River on the 5th inst. Five miles from Newport News she discovered a rebel force of about 7,000 on the shore. She opened a brisk fire upon them, and eight companies were sent by land to sustain her. About 5 o'clock in the morning 25 of Hawkins' Zouaves encountered a rebel force, supposed to number about 150, including 25 cavalry and one field-piece, seven miles from Newport News. It is reported that three of the rebels were shot, and also six of Hawkins' Zouaves.—The latter sent for reinforcements, and five companies were sent to sustain them.

MILITARY.—Commissions have been issued to Thomas O. Bigney as captain, Henry M. Balls 1st lieutenant, and O. P. Lacy as 2d lieutenant of the Orfordville volunteers.

Also to Chas. End as captain, John Heninger as 1st lieutenant and F. W. Pindarkelear as 2d lieutenant, of the Mayville Rifles.

UNCONDITIONAL UNION MEN.—The citizens of Horsetown, California, have raised the Stars and Stripes on a tall pole near the bridge over Clear Creek, and just beyond the flag and staff they have erected a gibbet, with this inscription: "Salute the flag unconditionally or hang!"

DROWNING OF CAPT. WILSON'S SON.—A dispatch has been received in Milwaukee, announcing that Robert Wilson, only son of the late Capt. John Wilson, of Lady Elgin memory, was drowned while bathing in the vicinity of Cleveland on Monday. Mrs. Wilson, the measure of whose afflictions is thus filled so overflowingly, was stopping with friends in Buffalo when the melancholy accident happened. The deceased son was in his fourteenth year, and is said to have been a worthy son of his noble hearted father.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT CAMP UTLEY.—A fatal accident occurred at Camp Utley, Racine, Saturday morning. Chas. Preston, of Beloit, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, by a private named Bal Daes, both members of the Jefferson City Guards. It seems that Preston was on guard, and his musket was lying on the ground, when Bal Daes picked it up and pointed it at Preston, and snapped it, thinking it was not loaded, as there was no cap on the tube, when it went off. The ball passed through his heart. Preston lived in Beloit. Daes lives in Racine.

SUICIDE AT MADISON.—Mr. Frederick Brasser, a bookbinder, in the employ of Messrs. Bliss, Eberhard & Festner, at Madison, committed suicide on Thursday night last by shooting himself with a double-barreled shot gun. He was found early the next morning, at the head of the first flight of stairs leading to the bindery, and although the body was still warm, it was supposed that he shot himself about midnight. He was about 28 years of age. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married but three or four weeks—she being his second wife. He married his first wife in Germany, and came over here, leaving her there. It is said that he had reason to suppose she had died, and so he married again.—But recently his first wife confronted him and his second wife, having come over with her father from the old country. The matter was arranged, however, with the first wife and her father, but still it is supposed this had something to do with his suicide.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, July 6.

The substance of the news by morning report is that a forward movement is being made in good earnest.

It is said that Gen. Johnston of the rebel forces is disposed to make a stand at last. He is directly in front of Gen. Patterson's army, 7 miles off, with his command consisting of 10,000 men, of which 600 are cavalry.

By Sunday Fairfax will no doubt be in federal possession, and by a week from that day our troops will encamp at Manassas.

It is not believed here (Washington) that the rebels will make any stand at Manassas Junction.

Colt received on order from the war department for 25,000 Minnie muskets.

The session of the senate is growing animated, and candidates for clerk increase daily. Gen. DeWitt Clinton Clark will doubtless be elected. Col. Forney is making vigorous efforts for the position.

Robert Morris of Philadelphia has been appointed chief clerk of the house by Mr. Ethridge.

Times correspondent says: Our troops continue to cross to Virginia, but does not believe there will be an advance for some days. A general movement is to occur early in the coming week, but the precise time will, of course, be made to correspond to movements of the divisions of Gens. McClellan and Patterson.

Since the rank of major general has been conferred upon Gen. Lyon, of Missouri, it is probable that Mr. Blair will be promoted to a brigadier general, and will soon take the field.

Mr. Carlisle in the house received a dispatch from Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, today, announcing that two Ohio regiments had surprised a nest of rebels at Buckhannon, Va., capturing 400, killing 30, and seizing 200 horses.

BALTIMORE, July 5.

Col. Stone is reported to be at Sandy Hook with 4,000 troops. He will be joined by 1,000 more to-morrow and cross the Potomac to aid Gen. Patterson, who is at Martinsburg with 22,000 men.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale moved that the senate proceed to elect an assistant door-keeper. Forty votes were cast—Isaac Bassett 30, Chas. Jones 8, scattering 2. Mr. Bassett was declared elected.

Mr. Wilson presented several bills, of which he gave notice on Thursday.

Mr. Grimes moved that the bill to promote the efficiency of the army be referred to a special committee of nine.

After discussion the bill was referred to a special committee of nine, consisting of Messrs. Wilson, Hale, Latham, Sherman, Powell, Cowan, King, Kennedy, Howe.

The other bills were referred to the military committee.

Mr. Polk presented the credentials of Waldo P. Johnson, senator elect of Missouri, who took the oath. Adjourned.

The Vice President announced standing committees as follows:

Foreign Relations.—Sumner, Collamer, Doolittle, Wilmot, Browning, Polk, Breckinridge.

Military Affairs and Militia.—Wilson, King, Baker, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Rice and Latham.

Finance.—Fessenden, Simmons, Sherman, Howe, Hunter, Pearce, Bright, McDougal.

Naval Affairs.—Hale, Grimes, Foot, Sherman, Thompson, Nicholson and McDougal.

Commerce.—Chandler, King, Morrill, Wilson, TenEyck, Saulsbury, Johnson.

Judiciary.—Trumbull, Foster, TenEyck, Cowan, Harris, Bayard, Powell, Clingman.

Post Office and Post Roads.—Cowan, Dixon, Wade, Trumbull, Rice, Bright, Latham.

Revolutionary Claims.—King, Chandler, Wilkinson, Howe, Nesmith.

Public Lands.—Harlan, Bingham, Clark, Pomeroy, Johnson, Rice, Nesmith.

Claims.—Clark, Simmons, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy, Polk, Bayard.

District of Columbia.—Grimes, Dixon, Morrill, Wade, Anthony, Kennedy, Powell.

Indian Affairs.—Doolittle, Wilkinson, Cowan, Foster, Lane of Kansas, Harlan, Nesmith.

Courts, Patents and the Patent Office.—Simmons, Sumner, Cowan, Thompson, Saulsbury.

Pensions.—Foster, Bingham, Lane of Indiana, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy and Saulsbury.

Public Buildings and Grounds.—Foote, Anthony, Chandler, Bright, Kennedy, Wade, Wilkinson, Hale, Browning, Johnson of Tennessee, Bragg.

Engrossed Bills.—Lane of Indiana, Morrill, Latham.

To audit and contract contingent expenses of the Senate.—Dixon, Clark, Johnson of Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

It has been decided in republican senatorial caucus to push business forward with all possible rapidity and then adjourn.

War appropriations are likely to be made at once.

Senator Wilson this morning introduced bills for an increase of the army. The general opinion is that they will be put on their passage with as little delay as possible.

Yesterday, as one of the rebel regiments was advancing on Fairfax, one of their own regiments mistook them for regulars and commenced firing on them. They killed eight and wounded several.

Another assassination was perpetrated on a fire zouave who was killed on the street by a concealed foe.

On good authority advices from our ministers at London and Paris, give the most emphatic assurances that England and France will fully respect our blockade, cotton or no cotton.

Evening Post's special.—It is rumored that Crittenden and Wyckliffe, of Kentucky, are preparing a plan of compromise to be presented to congress. It is, however, quite certain that no compromise measures would receive votes in congress, even if it were received at all.

Six guns were planted at lower Vienna, and six more close by Fairfax, on the road from Winchester to Alexandria.

Sen. Chandler's bill to confiscate property of rebel officers, is a bomb shell in the ranks of the enemy.

NEW YORK, July 6.

The report of the secretary of the navy states the force in commission as being eighty-two vessels, carrying eleven hundred guns, besides several steamers and other small crafts temporarily in the service. Twenty-three gun boats are now contracted for.

Since the 4th of March two hundred and fifty-nine officers have resigned and been dismissed.

The report recommends the appointment of a director of ordinance, to have supervision of details of that branch of that service; and also for the appointment of a board to enquire into the expediency of building iron steamers; also an increase of the clerical force of the department; also for the appointment of an assistant secretary.

Estimates for service, $30,309,520.

CAIRO, July 6.

Government has decided to accept all artillery companies for three years or for the war, as they prefer.

A government boat, with Gen. Prentiss on board, made an excursion down the river as far as Norfolk this afternoon. The result of the expedition is not yet known.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

Gen. Wilson added a section to his bill for organizing a volunteer force. It authorizes the colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, adjutant and quarter master of each regiment to frank letters for troops under their command; number of regiment, and campany, and the name of the writer must be superscribed on each letter.

High authority says 12,000 troops crossed over the Potomac within 24 hours.

Additional to Great Eastern.—The Times continues to maintain that Americans have no ground for their abuse of England, beyond mortification at England's lack of appreciation. It says that the northern people have thrown themselves into a passion, and must be left to recover.

Sir Archibald Allison, in a letter to C. M. Clay, contends that the American constitution is a failure, and recommends national church and monarchy as a remedy.

The conflagration in London telegraphed by the Persia was the most disastrous that has occurred for generations. Some estimate the extent of loss from 3 to 4 millions. Some articles of produce advanced in consequence of the great quantities consumed.

LEAVENWORTH, July 6.

Gov. Jackson's secretary has called a session of the Missouri legislature to meet at Sarcoxit, seventy miles south of Fort Scott, for the purpose of passing an ordinance of secession. The rebels in western Missouri, were concentrating at that point, and fugitives from Jasper county were hourly arriving at Fort Scott, and report terrible state of affairs in that section.

It is reported that Dr. Wilson, Dr. Vellanau and other leading Union men have been hung. In some cases escaping fugitives had been followed into Kansas by secessionists.

Montgomery with 400 men entered Missouri on the 27th, but his object has not transpired.

FORT MONROE, July 5.

Col. Baker's regiment arrived from Baltimore this morning and have encamped this side Hampton creek. Col. Baker it was supposed would be made brigadier general.

Col. Duryea was yesterday promoted to rank of brigadier general, command at Camp Hamilton.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

Sunday was a great day in Washington. Telegraphic advicess to Gen. Scott from Gen. Patterson, at Martinsburg, say a great force is coming from Manassas Junction to reinforce the rebels under Johnston and Jackson, who have foamed a union near Winchester. Patterson is in danger of being driven back from Jackson, and asks for troops. Ten regiments were going to-day and last night, mostly New Yorkers, by rail to the Relay House and Frederick.—The column under Gen. Sanford arrived at Martinsburg three days ago.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. McClellan. It is supposed he has not had time to come to Patterson's support. This movement of the enemy will be met by an advance of the whole of our Virginia force towards Manassas Junction at the earliest moment—possibly within two days. It is hoped that the next movement from the Junction will be great enough to enable Gen. McDowell to force his way between these divisions and shut in the advancing rebel column between Patterson's and McDowell's commands, thus compelling a fight or a footrace or a surrender. It is thought that Col. Stone at Harper's Ferry will be forced to take the Maryland side and join Sanford on his advance. Probably the first battle will be between Winchester and Martinsburg, with 35,000 on each side.

The streets are full of troops, baggage wagons and horses, all day. The boys march with high spirits, panting for a fight. They are filing past my window now, singing in great glee.

The feeling here to-day is that if Patterson is driven back the enemy will get in our rear and derange the plans. Patterson has 21,000, Stone 4,000, and Sanford 10,000.—They ought not to be beaten.

There is talk that the increasing af the regular army will be forbidden by Congress.

A report on the streets that a fight is going on at Fairfax, and a report from Baltimore that Patterson is beaten and retreating, are canards though they may reach you from New York.

Gov. Yates has appointed Tom Marshall of Coles county, colonel of the cavalry regiment. It is a good appointment. They are both here asking equipments from the government.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

OSHKOSH, July 8.

Destructive tornado swept over this city at 2 o'clock this morning, unroofing houses in every direction, blowing down trees, and doing immense damage.

Large flouring mill of Green & Powers is unroofed, and the upper portion demolished.

Store of Bigger & Hill unroofed and filled with water, damaging goods to a large amount.

Three stores on Ferry street have their entire front walls blown down.

The steamer Shawanaw City, lying at the dock, is a complete wreck, her upper works being entirely blown away.

Steamer Berlin City has smoke stacks, pilot house and upper cabin carried away, and otherwise damaged.

Houses in all parts of the city were lifted up and carried several feet, in some cases being turned completely around, and some entirely demolished.

Wind was accompanied by a violent hail storm, not a house in the city but has sustained more or less damage.

Lightning was terrific, striking in several places.

No loss of life as yet reported.

☞ A man named Semple, who is connected with one of the oldest and most respectable families of Covington, Ky., but now degenerated into a mere sot, was sold at public auction by the sheriff, on the 22d, for inveterate vagrancy. Andy Herod, the jailer, became his purchaser at the sum of one dime, and will have an opportunity to get his money back by Semple's services until the first of Seprember.

☞ By a letter from Pensacola, under date of June 24th of June, we learn that the Vanderbilt had arrived there with Billy Wilson's New York Zouaves.

Louisiana, with a free population of 354,000, has sent over 12,000 troops to the seat of war. The governor has refused to allow any more to leave the state.

☞ It is said at Washington that no member of the cabinet saw the message of the president until after it was delivered.—Those portions of it recommending a $400,000,000 loan, and making the distinction between the patriotism of the common soldiers and officers, were received with immense applause, on the floor and in the galleries.

MATHIAS POINT.—It seems that the rebels have strongly fortified themselves at Mathias Point, since the failure of Captain Ward to dislodge them, and their batteries now command the Potomac. For the present, the navigation of that river by our vessels is rendered extra hazardous, if not wholly impossible, and what gives the fact more prominence, is the additional statement that Secretary Cameron, who had been to Fortress Monroe in company with Gen. Fremont, cannot get back that way. If so, he is caught in his own trap. The War department, from the first, failed to appreciate Captain Ward's idea of the importance of this Point, and even now, while Mr. Cameron is absent, we see the same spirit manifested in his department. They will confer with Secretary Welles about sending a force, it is said, "in a few days;" meanwhile hoping the rebels may be called off by movements elsewhere.

The position is this: Mathias Point is about sixty miles below Washington, and twenty below Acquia Creek. It is a bluff, well wooded, and just the place for concealed or any other batteries. Besides, the river makes an abrupt angle here and the channel runs in close to the shore, while on the Maryland side it spreads out broad and shallow. The Point is in fact a peninsula, commanding the river approaches in either direction. Back of it are the entrenchment lines of the enemy around Fredericksburg and along the Rappahannan. Capt. Ward, as a shrewd officer, early saw the importance of holding it, and unsupported as he was by troops, he perilled and lost his life in the attempt to establish a foothold there, ere the rebels should have rendered it too late. If their batteries operate upon Mr. Cameron's own transport vessel, what a calamity it would be, surely!—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Cameron was obliged to come back to Washington via. Baltimore, as we learn by telegraphic despatches.

PROCLAMATION.

Attention of all persons owning dogs is called to the following ordinance:

"An Ordinance to prevent the running at large of Dogs, and to authorize the Destruction of the same in a summary manner:

SECTION 1. That every person residing in the city of Janesville owning or having in his or her possession any dog or bitch, and suffering the same to run at large, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars for every dog and ten dollars for every bitch thus suffered to run at large, unless protected as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Any person paying to the treasurer of the city one dollar for each dog and five dollars for each bitch, shall be entitled to a license for such dog or bitch to run at large to the end of the year in which said license is issued, providing such person procuring a licence shall put upon the neck of such dog or bitch so licensed to run at large a metallic collar, with the owners name engraved thereon in legible letters, and shall pay the city clerk fifty cents for granting such a license. And provided further, that such dog or bitch, so licensed, shall be securely muzzled, so as to prevent them from biting. Persons complying with the provisions of this section shall not be liable to the penalties named in the first section of this ordinance.

SEC. 3. All dogs or bitches running at large in this city, which are not securely muzzled, so as to prevent their biting, shall be liable to be killed."

The constables of the city are hereby instructed to enforce this ordinance.

The necessity for prompt action in this matter is evident to many citizens from what has been witnessed within the last twenty-four hours.

I therefore order that there be no delay in exterminating every dog not securely muzzled, running at large within the city limits.

J. BODWELL DOE, Mayor.

Take Care of Your Dogs.

We publish to day a proclamation by the Mayor directing the constables of the city to enforce the dog ordinance. It is just what is needed, and every dog not taken care of and confined should be killed wherever he is found. Human life is too valuable to be endangered by some worthless and perhaps ownerless cur.

☞ The following has been sent us by the telegraph operator in this city:

July 8th.

$50 REWARD.—On Saturday a copper wire was attached to the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien telegraph line, and run down side of the pole into the ground, near Stoughton, thereby cutting off communication with the west for some foul purpose.—A reward of fifty dollars is offered by the Wisconsin State Telegraph Company, for information leading to the detection of the person or persons who done the mischief.

TO FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.—Packages made up by volunteers for their families prior to their departure from Madison, are at the residence of Mayor Doe. The parents or friends for whom they are designed are requested to call and examine them.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.—Besides George Drake, before reported, the mail reports a member of Capt. Mitchell's company as killed at Williamsport. The name is Sergeant Graham.

Frederick Hutchings, of company E, (Madison Guards) was severely wounded. He is the color sergeant of the regiment.

HARD USAGE.—A correspondent of the Milwaukee Wisconsin, writing from Camp Randall, says:

"We left camp at 10 o'clock, (4th July) and were kept on the march all the time from then until 2 o'clock, without a drink of water or anything else. The dinner which we were to have in the Park, was, like everything else among the missing.—We could not get water without paying for it, and we were kept under a hot sun, and in a heavy cloud of dust all the time, to please the people of Madison and vicinity, and put money into their pockets."

While in Madison we heard the same complaint from soldiers in the camp. The military procession was the feature of the celebration, and surely some provision ought to have been made for the comfort of the men who made the chief attraction of the day.

WHISKY AND CRIME.—Last Friday night Patrick Sullivan went drunk to his home in Beloit, and commenced abusing his wife. Among other proceedings, he threw a stone at her, which she dodged, and which struck a child in the head and fractured the skull. He was arrested, and Saturday sent to Janesville in charge of constable E. G. Smith. When crossing Bridge Creek bridge, in a buggy, he made an attempt to escape by jumping from the buggy. In doing so, he frightened the horses attached to the buggy,—and Mr. Smith, buggy and horses, were thrown down the bank of the creek. Sullivan made his escape into the grove, pursued by Smith, who kept watch of his course, and sent to town for Sheriff Putnam. After help arrived, a search was made for the prisoner, and he was discovered by Mr. Fredendall concealed in some bushes. He was again arrested and safely confined in jail.

CURRANTS.—The currants this year are large with long clusters. We acknowledge the receipt of good specimens from the garden of Judge Knowlton, and also a bush hanging full, from Mr. Almon Ruggles.

☞ The letter of our correspondent will be found quite interesting. It contains particulars not before received in relation to the battle near Williamsport.

THE COMET, which suddenly appeared in full splendor on the night of the 30th ult., is fast receding from the earth. Astronomers no not know what to make of it. Mr. Bradley of the Alleghany Observatory, thinks it is approaching the sun at an inconceivable rate. On the night of the 2d of July, it was observed three hours by J. M. Gillis, superintendent of the U. S. Naval Observatory, at Washington. During that time the dimensions of the whole mass had increased to at least double the original size, the outlines becoming indistinct. At the rate it is now leaving us, it will become invisible in a short time.

☞ A few tickets for the excursion to Rockford to-morrow are still unsold, and in the morning may be obtained at the Galena Ticket office. Those desiring to do so can leave their baskets at the church as early as 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

The Battle near Williamsport.

HAYNESVILLE, July 2, 1861.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Last Saturday afternoon the first regiment of Wisconsin, in company with the eleventh of Pennsylvania, left Hagerstown and marched to Downsville, a village distant from the Potomac one and a half miles. We first encamped in a sandy field, and remained there during that night. On Sunday morning we moved our tents to a better field, and remained there during Sunday. On Sunday evening we received orders to get ready to march at 1 o'clock Monday morning. One o'clock came, however, but we did not march.—The reason is as follows: The rebels found out that we were going to ford the river at the dam near Downsville, so they destroyed the dam, thus making it necessary for us to march to Williamsport, which we did on Monday forenoon.

At Williamsport we found about 10,000 federal troops, mostly from Pennsylvania. We pitched tents on a bluff which rises up from the Maryland side of the Potomac. Words poorly express the joy and enthusiasm that filled every heart upon beholding the river and the opposite Virginia banks. We saw a few secessionists dodging around among the trees. One of my tent-mates, in company with a regular, took a common-size copy of the stars and stripes across the river and nailed it to a housed belonging to the captain of a rebel company.—The captain, however, was away from home—three women only being in the house. They were somewhat frightened.

On Monday afternoon I visited Captain Doubleday's battery, which was very near our encampment, and commands a full range of the river. There are three pieces, two 24-pounders and a 56 pound howitzer. They are truly formidable guns, and manned by fine soldiers, many of whom were at the siege of Fort Sumter.

This morning at two o'clock we struck our tents without signals, threw aside all superfluous baggage, retaining only five tents of our thirteen, and forded the Potomac, reaching the opposite bank about half-past 3. (I notice you said we were pretty good at blowing our own horn. Observe that we had the honor of leading the sixth brigade across the river, which fact I think justifies some of our previous assertions as to our ability.)

No sooner had we crossed the river than three companies—A, F and K—were deployed as shirmishers, taking a clean sweep through forest, swamp, grain fields and marshes, climbing fences and jumping creeks, until about 8 o'clock when we halted at a house just deserted by a secession family. Just before halting, one of us shot at a squad of cavalry, which made them disappear at a lively rate. During our rapid march we found a few knapsacks and a rifle, probably left by rebel pickets. After a short halt we again advanced. Soon we heard that a rebel force of about 1,800 men was lying in wait for us. At this news we filed right into a piece of woods and waited until the columns, for the protection of which we had been skirmishing, came up to us.

When they got pretty near we again took the road in front of them, and in a few minutes more our pickets received a shot from the enemy. As soon as a company of Federal artillery had ascertained the position of the rebels, our regiment advanced and engaged them. Volley after volley was fired from each side. Very soon Fred. Hutching, our flag bearer, was wounded in the leg below the knee, and was carried from the field—one of the color guard taking the flag.

At this juncture two brass field pieces, belonging to Perkins' artillery, came whirling into the field to the right of us, each drawn by six horses, upon a dead run. In an almost incredible short time they were throwing shell and ball at the enemy at a rate which surprised the uninitiated. They had fired but a few rounds when the Pennsylvania 23d came to our aid at full run, shouting like mad men; but they were too late, for Co. E of our regiment had just charged upon the rebels and driven them from their position. Soon came two more brass guns, and Federal troops by the thousand. During all this time our regiment stood the fire from the enemy not flinching in the least, although balls whistled past us on all sides. Five were wounded, of these, Sergeant Graham, of Co. B., mortally. One only was killed, Samuel Drake, of Co. A. A ball passed directly through his heart. His last words were, "O my Mother."

As the rebels fled the Wisconsin regiment formed into a column and followed them to a piece of woods when they again made a stand near their battery of four guns.—While our regiment were preparing for another skirmish, a regiment of Pennsylvania troops from another direction rushed forward and closed the battle by giving the confederates such a volley as compelled them to make a sudden retreat. In this attack they had 1 killed, and 5 wounded. During the next two hours our regiment made a sweep through the woods, but found no more hostile troops. A company of Pennsylvania troops were taken prisoners by a body of the enemy's cavalry. The Pennsylvania boys thinking their captors were federal troops until it was too late to save themselves.

As yet I can get no reliable information as to the number of confederates killed and wounded. Two were found dead upon the field of battle, and some of our men saw the enemy pick up fourteen of their own men and put them into wagons.

There are at least 20,000 federal troops very near here and 15,000 within sight of where I am now writing. To-morrow we shall move to Martinsburg away from here about 9 miles. At that place there are about 10,000 confederates, and a large battery. All are anxious to go. To-day's experience increases rather than diminishes our desire to engage the rebels again. I am sorry to say that several houses have been ransacked by U. S. troops, which no doubt will turn the Union men here who have been for us, against us.

Besides other difficulties I am holding a candle between my knees while the blaze flickers so I can hardly see. So you must make a liberal allowance for mistakes.—Nearly all in good health and spirits.

Yours, &c., N.

County Board of Equalization.

The County Board of Supervisors met as a Board of Equalization to-day at 1 o'clock. The roll being called by the clerk, the following members answered to their names:

Avon—A. M. Rendall.
Bradford—George Playter.
Beloit, (town)—Charles Peck.
Clinton—Henry Tuttle.
Fulton—Simeon Schoonover.
Harmony—Cyrus Bliss.
Janesville (town)—A. W. Pope.
Johnstown—D. R. Spooner.
La Prairie—Frances Nash.
Lima—T. H. Goodhue.
Magnolia—J. Doolittle.
Milton—H. G. Greenman.
Newark—E. L. Carpenter.
Plymouth—H. D. Douglas.
Porter—O. W. Gilman.
Rock—T. L. Hollister.
Spring Valley—James Kirkpatrick.
Union—Peter Aller.
Beloit City—1st ward, H. P. Strong.
" —2d " J. G. Kendall.
" —3d " A. W. Root.
Janesville City—1st ward, N. Parker.
" —2d " Geo. Barnes.
" —3d " H. W. Collins.
" —4th " H. S. Shelton.

Absent—J. Corey, Center; H. J. Murray, Turtle; J. Hackett, 4th ward, Beloit.

On motion of Mr. Greenman, the board proceeded to ballot for a chairman.

E. L. Carpenter and H. W. Collins were appointed tellers.

A. W. Pope received 12 votes, J. Doolittle 4, H. G. Greenman 3, scattering 3.

Mr. Pope was declared elected.

The members were then sworn in by S. L. James, clerk of the board.

On motion of Mr. Parker, a committee of one from each assembly district and one from the county at large was appointed to report a basis of equalization.

The chairman appointed Messrs. Parker, Bliss, Doolittle, Carpenter, Root, Spooner and Goodhue as this committee.

Mr. Parker was excused, at his request, and Mr. Collins substituted in his place.

Mr. H. P. Strong introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the law which has called us together only countenances our acting as a board of equalization, we will only entertain buisness directly bearing upon this question.

The board then adjourned until to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, to wait the report of the committee on a basis of equalization.

Picnic at Rock.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow us to say through the daily to the patriotic readers of the Gazette, that one of the finest picnics we ever attended was enjoyed on the glorious 4th in a beautiful grove on the east side of the river, opposite Afton. It was gotton up by F. Hollister and H. Inman, and the occasion was worthy of the men and women who conducted it. Many of the citizens of Afton and the surrounding country were in attendance to celebrate our national birth-day; and we must say for the ladies that we never sat down to a better or more tastefully arranged table, laden as it was with roast turkeys and pigs, fresh strawberries, with all the delicacies of the season. After all had fared sumptuously, we were treated to a short but good speech from S. D. Burlingame, followed by an address by the Rev. R. F. Parshall, which was telling and effective upon his audience.—Some very rich toasts were also read, and we dispersed, feeling that we had experienced all that a good dinner, hot coffee, (iced lemonade,) fine speeches, happy faces, and strong desires for liberty could impart.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Those ladies who contributed to the purchase of Havelocks for the Light Guard—Capt. Wheeler's company—are requested to meet at the parlor of the post office to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, to make some disposition of the money raised, as the Havelocks are not needed, having been furnished by government.

MRS. J. M. BURGESS.
MRS. J. P. DICKSON.

THE STORM.—We had a storm of wind, accompanied with considerable rain, early this morning. From the telegraphic despatch from Oshkosh we infer that it was much more severe north of us, and we shall probaby hear of further damage. This afternoon we are having a steady rain with lightning and thunder. The clouds are dense and dark, making gas light necessary in our office. The rain was very much needed, and will be received with thankfulness by all having growing crops.

KEEP DOING IT.—Constable Robertson has killed nine dogs to-day, and his powder is yet dry.

PROCLAMATION.

Attention of all persons owning dogs is called to the following ordinance:

"An Ordinance to prevent the running at large of Dogs, and to authorize the Destruction of the same in a summary manner:

SECTION 1. That every person residing in the city of Janesville owning or having in his or her possession any dog or bitch, and suffering the same to run at large, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars for every dog and ten dollars for every bitch thus suffered to run at large, unless protected as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Any person paying to the treasurer of the city one dollar for each dog and five dollars for each bitch, shall be entitled to a license for such dog or bitch to run at large to the end of the year in which said license is issued, providing such person procuring a licence shall put upon the neck of such dog or bitch so licensed to run at large, a metallic collar, with the owners name engraved thereon in legible letters, and shall pay the city clerk fifty cents for granting such a license. And provided further, that such dog or bitch, so licensed, shall be securely muzzled, so as to prevent them from biting. Persons complying with the provisions of this section shall not be liable to the penalties named in the first section of this ordinance.

SEC. 3. All dogs or bitches running at large in this city, which are not securely muzzled, so as to prevent their biting, shall be liable to be killed."

The constables of the city are hereby instructed to enforce this ordinance.

The necessity for prompt action in this matter is evident to many citizens from what has been witnessed within the last twenty-four hours.

I therefore order that there be no delay in exterminating every dog not securely muzzled, running at large within the city limits.

J. BODWELL DOE, Mayor.

Take Care of Your Dogs.

We publish to-day a proclamation by the Mayor directing the constables of the city to enforce the dog ordinance. It is just what is needed, and every dog not taken care of and confined should be killed wherever he is found. Human life is too valuable to be endangered by some worthless and perhaps ownerless cur.

☞ The following has been sent us by the telegraph operator in this city:

July 8th.

$50 REWARD.—On Saturday a copper wire was attached to the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien telegraph line, and run down side of the pole into the ground, near Stoughton, thereby cutting off communication with the west for some foul purpose.—A reward of fifty dollars is offered by the Wisconsin State Telegraph Company, for information leading to the detection of the person or persons who done the mischief.

TO FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.—Packages made up by volunteers for their families prior to their departure from Madison, are at the residence of Mayor Doe. The parents or friends for whom they are designed are requested to call and examine them.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.—Besides George Drake, before reported, the mail reports a member of Capt. Mitchell's company as killed at Williamsport. The name is Sergeant Graham.

Frederick Hutchings, of company E, (Madison Guards) was severely wounded. He is the color sergeant of the regiment.

HARD USAGE.—A correspondent of the Milwaukee Wisconsin, writing from Camp Randall, says:

"We left camp at 10 o'clock, (4th July) and were kept on the march all the time from then until 2 o'clock, without a drink of water or anything else. The dinner which we were to have in the Park, was, like everything else among the missing.—We could not get water without paying for it, and we were kept under a hot sun, and in a heavy cloud of dust all the time, to please the people of Madison and vicinity, and put money into their pockets."

While in Madison we heard the same complaint from soldiers in the camp. The military procession was the feature of the celebration, and surely some provision ought to have been made for the comfort of the men who made the chief attraction of the day.

WHISKY AND CRIME.—Last Friday night Patrick Sullivan went drunk to his home in Beloit, and commenced abusing his wife. Among other proceedings, he threw a stone at her, which she dodged, and which struck a child in the head and fractured the skull. He was arrested, and Saturday sent to Janesville in charge of constable E. G. Smith. When crossing Bridge Creek bridge, in a buggy, he made an attempt to escape by jumping from the buggy. In doing so, he frightened the horses attached to the buggy,—and Mr. Smith, buggy and horses, were thrown down the bank of the creek. Sullivan made his escape into the grove, pursued by Smith, who kept watch of his course, and sent to town for Sheriff Putnam. After help arrived, a search was made for the prisoner, and he was discovered by Mr. Fredendall concealed in some bushes. He was again arrested and safely confined in jail.

CURRANTS.—The currants this year are large with long clusters. We acknowledge the receipt of good specimens from the garden of Judge Knowlton, and also a bush hanging full, from Mr. Almon Ruggles.

☞ The letter of our correspondent will be found quite interesting. It contains particulars not before received in relation to the battle near Williamsport.

THE COMET, which suddenly appeared in full splendor on the night of the 30th ult., is fast receding from the earth. Astronomers no not know what to make of it. Mr. Bradley of the Alleghany Observatory, thinks it is approaching the sun at an inconceivable rate. On the night of the 2d of July, it was observed three hours by J. M. Gillis, superintendent of the U. S. Naval Observatory, at Washington. During that time the dimensions of the whole mass had increased to at least double the original size, the outlines becoming indistinct. At the rate it is now leaving us, it will become invisible in a short time.

☞ A few tickets for the excursion to Rockford to-morrow are still unsold, and in the morning may be obtained at the Galena Ticket office. Those desiring to do so can leave their baskets at the church as early as 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

The Battle near Williamsport.

HAYNESVILLE, July 2, 1861.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Last Saturday afternoon the first regiment of Wisconsin, in company with the eleventh of Pennsylvania, left Hagerstown and marched to Downsville, a village distant from the Potomac one and a half miles. We first encamped in a sandy field, and remained there during that night. On Sunday morning we moved our tents to a better field, and remained there during Sunday. On Sunday evening we received orders to get ready to march at 1 o'clock Monday morning. One o'clock came, however, but we did not march.—The reason is as follows: The rebels found out that we were going to ford the river at the dam near Downsville, so they destroyed the dam, thus making it necessary for us to march to Williamsport, which we did on Monday forenoon.

At Williamsport we found about 10,000 federal troops, mostly from Pennsylvania. We pitched tents on a bluff which rises up from the Maryland side of the Potomac. Words poorly express the joy and enthusiasm that filled every heart upon beholding the river and the opposite Virginia banks. We saw a few secessionists dodging around among the trees. One of my tent-mates, in company with a regular, took a common-size copy of the stars and stripes across the river and nailed it to a housed belonging to the captain of a rebel company.—The captain, however, was away from home—three women only being in the house. They were somewhat frightened.

On Monday afternoon I visited Captain Doubleday's battery, which was very near our encampment, and commands a full range of the river. There are three pieces, two 24-pounders and a 56 pound howitzer. They are truly formidable guns, and manned by fine soldiers, many of whom were at the siege of Fort Sumter.

This morning at two o'clock we struck our tents without signals, threw aside all superfluous baggage, retaining only five tents of our thirteen, and forded the Potomac, reaching the opposite bank about half-past 3. (I notice you said we were pretty good at blowing our own horn. Observe that we had the honor of leading the sixth brigade across the river, which fact I think justifies some of our previous assertions as to our ability.)

No sooner had we crossed the river than three companies—A, F and K—were deployed as skirmishers, taking a clean sweep through forest, swamp, grain fields and marshes, climbing fences and jumping creeks, until about 8 o'clock when we halted at a house just deserted by a secession family. Just before halting, one of us shot at a squad of cavalry, which made them disappear at a lively rate. During our rapid march we found a few knapsacks and a rifle, probably left by rebel pickets. After a short halt we again advanced. Soon we heard that a rebel force of about 1,800 men was lying in wait for us. At this news we filed right into a piece of woods and waited until the columns, for the protection of which we had been skirmishing, came up to us.

When they got pretty near we again took the road in front of them, and in a few minutes more our pickets received a shot from the enemy. As soon as a company of Federal artillery had ascertained the position of the rebels, our regiment advanced and engaged them. Volley after volley was fired from each side. Very soon Fred. Hutching, our flag bearer, was wounded in the leg below the knee, and was carried from the field—one of the color guard taking the flag.

At this juncture two brass field pieces, belonging to Perkins' artillery, came whirling into the field to the right of us, each drawn by six horses, upon a dead run. In an almost incredible short time they were throwing shell and ball at the enemy at a rate which surprised the uninitiated. They had fired but a few rounds when the Pennsylvania 23d came to our aid at full run, shouting like mad men; but they were too late, for Co. E of our regiment had just charged upon the rebels and driven them from their position. Soon came two more brass guns, and Federal troops by the thousand. During all this time our regiment stood the fire from the enemy not flinching in the least, although balls whistled past us on all sides. Five were wounded, of these, Sergeant Graham, of Co. B., mortally. One only was killed, Samuel Drake, of Co. A. A ball passed directly through his heart. His last words were, "O my Mother."

As the rebels fled the Wisconsin regiment formed into a column and followed them to a piece of woods when they again made a stand near their battery of four guns.—While our regiment were preparing for another skirmish, a regiment of Pennsylvania troops from another direction rushed forward and closed the battle by giving the confederates such a volley as compelled them to make a sudden retreat. In this attack they had 1 killed, and 3 wounded. During the next two hours our regiment made a sweep through the woods, but found no more hostile troops. A company of Pennsylvania troops were taken prisoners by a body of the enemy's cavalry. The Pennsylvania boys thinking their captors were federal troops until it was too late to save themselves.

As yet I can get no reliable information as to the number of confederates killed and wounded. Two were found dead upon the field of battle, and some of our men saw the enemy pick up fourteen of their own men and put them into wagons.

There are at least 20,000 federal troops very near here and 15,000 within sight of where I am now writing. To-morrow we shall move to Martinsburg away from here about 9 miles. At that place there are about 10,000 confederates, and a large battery. All are anxious to go. To-day's experience increases rather than diminishes our desire to engage the rebels again. I am sorry to say that several houses have been ransacked by U. S. troops, which no doubt will turn the Union men here who have been for us, against us.

Besides other difficulties I am holding a candle between my knees while the blaze flickers so I can hardly see. So you must make a liberal allowance for mistakes.—Nearly all in good health and spirits.

Yours, &c., N.

County Board of Equalization.

The County Board of Supervisors met as a Board of Equalization to-day at 1 o'clock. The roll being called by the clerk, the following members answered to their names:

Avon—A. M. Randall.
Bradford—George Playter.

" —3d " A. W. Root.
Janesville City—1st ward, N. Parker.
" —2d " Geo. Barnes.
" —3d " H. W. Collins.
" —4th " H. S. Shelton.

Absent—J. Corey, Center; H. J. Murray, Turtle; J. Hackett, 4th ward, Beloit.

On motion of Mr. Greenman, the board proceeded to ballot for a chairman.

E. L. Carpenter and H. W. Collins were appointed tellers.

A. W. Pope received 12 votes, J. Doolittle 4, H. G. Greenman 3, scattering 3.

Mr. Pope was declared elected.

The members were then sworn in by S. L. James, clerk of the board.

On motion of Mr. Parker, a committee of one from each assembly district and one from the county at large was appointed to report a basis of equalization.

The chairman appointed Messrs. Parker, Bliss, Doolittle, Carpenter, Root, Spooner and Goodhue as this committee.

Mr. Parker was excused, at his request, and Mr. Collins substituted in his place.

Mr. H. P. Strong introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the law which has called us together only countenances our acting as a board of equalization, we will only entertain buisness directly bearing upon this question.

The board then adjourned until to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, to wait the report of the committee on a basis of equalization.

Picnic at Rock.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow us to say through the daily to the patriotic readers of the Gazette, that one of the finest picnics we ever attended was enjoyed on the glorious 4th in a beautiful grove on the east side of the river, opposite Afton. It was gotton up by F. Hollister and H. Inman, and the occasion was worthy of the men and women who conducted it. Many of the citizens of Afton and the surrounding country were in attendance to celebrate our national birth-day; and we must say for the ladies that we never sat down to a better or more tastefully arranged table, laden as it was with roast turkeys and pigs, fresh strawberries, with all the delicacies of the season. After all had fared sumptuously, we were treated to a short but good speech from S. D. Burlingame, followed by an address by the Rev. R. F. Parshall, which was telling and effective upon his audience.—Some very rich toasts were also read, and we dispersed, feeling that we had experienced all that a good dinner, hot coffee, (iced lemonade,) fine speeches, happy faces, and strong desires for liberty could impart.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Those ladies who contributed to the purchase of Havelocks for the Light Guard—Capt. Wheeler's company—are requested to meet at the parlor of the post office to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, to make some disposition of the money raised, as the Havelocks are not needed, having been furnished by government.

MRS. J. M. BURGESS.
MRS. J. P. DICKSON.

THE STORM.—We had a storm of wind, accompanied with considerable rain, early this morning. From the telegraphic despatch from Oshkosh we infer that it was much more severe north of us, and we shall probaby hear of further damage. This afternoon we are having a steady rain with lightning and thunder. The clouds are dense and dark, making gas light necessary in our office. The rain was very much needed, and will be received with thankfulness by all having growing crops.

KEEP DOING IT.—Constable Robertson has killed nine dogs to-day, and his powder is yet dry.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are, every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost if not entirely valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus or hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New-York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented, and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

HENRY C SPALDING,
No. 48 Cedar st., N. Y.,
DEAR SIR:
Inclosed find twenty-five cents (25) for which send box of "Cephalic Pills." Send to address of Rev. Wm. C. Filler, Reynoldsburgh, Franklin Co., Ohio.
Your Pills work like a charm—cure Headache almost instanter.
Truly yours,
WM. C. FILLER.

YPSILANTI, MICH., Jan. 14, 1861.
MR. SPALDING,
SIR:
Not long since I sent to you for a box of Cephalic Pills for the cure of the Nervous Headache and Costiveness, and received the same, and they had so good an effect that I was induced to send for more.
Please send by return mail. Direct to
A. R. WHEELER,
Ypsilanti, Mich.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.
Cephalic Pills accomplish the object for which they were made, viz: cure of headache in all its forms.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.
They have been tested in more than a thousand cases, with entire success.

From the Democrat, St. Cloud, Minn.
If you are, or have been, troubled with the headache, send for a box, (Cephalic Pills,) so that you may have them in case of an attack.

THE MOST USEFUL

MACHINES AND IMPLEMENTS

in use, are, or have been

SUBJECTS OF PATENTS.

"INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberal in their protection, is only to be just towards the rights of property, and tends to increase the public wealth and hastens the progress of practical improvements and of science. * * * The settled doctrine of the courts, now, under the light of large experience, is, to incline to constructions most favorable to patents."—Extract from opinion of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

May's Patents.

Double and Single Acting Pumps.

☞ For any depth of mining shafts and wells, open or drilled, to 500 feet.

☞ No suction pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pumping rods.

☞ Are composed of two metallic cylinders and two brass valves, and wrought-iron conducting pipe.

☞ Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and by means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at whatever depth, and work without noise.

☞ They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!!

☞ Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess valuable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

"Blow winds and crack your cheeks! rage! blow!"
—King Lear.

The winds are found to be the Cheapest Motor in existence, and highly serviceable for many mechanical purposes, as pumping, sawing, turning, grinding, &c., &c.

WIND ENGINES, OR MILLS,

LATEST IMPROVEMENTS,

May's Patents.

☞ These ENGINES are perfectly self-regulating and under easy control, independent of their self-governing qualities.

☞ They are STRONG and DURABLE.

☞ No pains or expense has been spared to simplify and perfect both pumps and engines to make them UNRIVALLED in quality, and ECONOMICAL in price.

☞ Every article, whether Pump or Engine, WARRANTED.

☞ Call and examine thoroughly before buying.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine.

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, 1st 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. R. W. SCHENCK.
Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 600 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.
C. M. CLARK.
Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 120 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. REEVES & WADDLE.
Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.
JOHN TRACY.
Center, Rock county, Wis., Feb. 27th, 1861.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 85 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS.
Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.
WM. SCHENCK.
Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 186 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.
J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. Address as above.

☞ Also for sale, the Patents in the unsold territory for Badger's Portable Grist Mill, Gilmore & May's Rock Drill, Stone Dressing Machine and Quartz Rock Crusher, and Nash & Cutts' Grain Separator. All late Patents, are meritorious and sell freely. Address,
J. M. MAY, Agent, &c., as above.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus or hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New-York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

I have tried your Cephalic Pills, and I like them so well that I want you to send me two dollars worth more.

Part of these are for the neighbors, to whom I gave a few out of the first box I got from you.

Send the Pills by mail, and oblige
Your ob't servant,
JAMES KENNEDY.

HAVERFORD, Pa., Feb. 6, 1861.

MR. SPALDING,
SIR:

I wish you to send me one more box of your Cephalic Pills, I have received a great deal of benefit from them.

Yours respectfully,
MARY ANN STOIKHOUSE.

SPRUCE CREEK, HUNTINGTON Co., Pa.,
January 18, 1861.

H. C. SPALDING,
SIR:

You will please send me two boxes of your Cephalic Pills. Send them immediately.

Respectfully yours,
JNO. B. SIMONS.

P. S.—I have used one box of your Pills, and find them excellent.

BELLE VERNON, Ohio, Jan. 15, 1861.

HENRY C. SPALDING, Esq.

I wish for some circulars or large show bills, to bring your Cephalic Pills more particularly before my customers. If you have anything of the kind, please send to me.

One of my customers, who is subject to severe Sick Headache (usually lasting two days,) was cured of an attack in one hour by your Pills, which I sent her.

Respectfully yours,
W. B. WILKES.

REYNOLDSBURGH, FRANKLIN Co., Ohio,

HENRY C. SPALDING,
No. 48 Cedar st., N. Y.,
DEAR SIR:

Inclosed find twenty-five cents (25) for which send box of "Cephalic Pills." Send to address of Rev. Wm. C. Filler, Reynoldsburgh, Franklin Co., Ohio.

Your Pills work like a charm—cure Headache almost instanter.

Truly yours,
WM. C. FILLER.

YPSILANTI, MICH., Jan. 14, 1861.

MR. SPALDING,
SIR:

Not long since I sent to you for a box of Cephalic Pills for the cure of the Nervous Headache and Costiveness, and received the same, and they had so good an effect that I was induced to send for more.

Please send by return mail. Direct to
A. R. WHEELER,
Ypsilanti, Mich.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.

Cephalic Pills accomplish the object for which they were made, viz: cure of headache in all its forms.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.

They have been tested in more than a thousand cases, with entire success.

From the Democrat, St. Cloud, Minn.

If you are, or have been, troubled with the headache, send for a box, (Cephalic Pills,) so that you may have them in case of an attack.

THE MOST USEFUL

in use, are, or have been

SUBJECTS OF PATENTS.

"INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberal in their protection, is only to be just towards the rights of property, and tends to increase the public wealth and hastens the progress of practical improvements and of science. * * * The settled doctrine of the courts, now, under the light of large experience, is, to incline to constructions most favorable to patents."—Extract from opinion of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

May's Patents.

Double and Single Acting Pumps.

☞ For any depth of mining shafts and wells, open or drilled, to 500 feet.

☞ No suction pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pumping rods.

☞ Are composed of two metalic cylinders and two brass valves, and wrought-iron conducting pipe.

☞ Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and by means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at whatever depth, and work without noise.

☞ They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!!

☞ Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess valuable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

"Blow winds and crack your cheeks! rage! blow!"
—King Lear.

The winds are found to be the Cheapest Motor in existence and highly serviceable for many mechanical purposes, as pumping, sawing, turning, grinding, &c., &c.

WIND ENGINES, OR MILLS,

LATEST IMPROVEMENTS,

May's Patents.

☞ These ENGINES are perfectly self-regulating and under easy control, independent of their self-governing qualities.

☞ They are STRONG and DURABLE.

☞ No pains or expense has been spaired to simplify and perfect both pumps and engines to make them UNRIVALLED in quality, and ECONOMICAL in price.

☞ Every article, whether Pump or Engine, WARRANTED.

☞ Call and examine thoroughly before buying.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine,

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, last 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. R. W. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 690 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

C. M. CLARK.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 120 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. REEVES & WADDLE,

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 8 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

JOHN TRACY.

Center, Rock county, Wis., Feb. 27th, 1861.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS.

Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.

WM. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 186 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.

J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. Address as above.

☞ Also for sale, the Patents in the unsold territory for Badger's Portable Grist Mill, Gilmore & May's Rock Drill, Stone Dressing Machine and Quartz Rock Crusher, and Nash & Catts' Grain Separator. All late Patents, are meritorious and sell freely. Address,

J. M. MAY, Agent, &c., as above.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From The London Daily News.

The Truth at New Orleans.

The following is an extract from a private letter, dated New Orleans, May 30:

"The condition of this country, the now ripening fruit of the erroneous ideas of freedom obtaining here, is distressing today, and gives rise to the most dreadful fears for the future. This war is, I am convinced, based upon no social necessity, upon no real rivalry between the different sections of the country; it is the result of political madness, of a struggle between individuals for personal power and material advantages—individuals who make the weal of the country the pretense for obtaining their own ends. The press has lent itself to increase and continue the agitation, while tens of thousands of the reasonable citizens deplore and condemn it, being, like myself, convinced that one month of a warfare such as that now impending over us, will prove more disastrous, generally speaking, to the slave and freeman both, than a four years' government of the most anti-slavery party that ever could exist. But all are kept silent by the dread of "mob law," that specter of the present day.

Provisions have risen to three times their ordinary price; a barrel of flour of 200 pounds weight cost now fifteen dollars instead of five, and soon flour will not be to be had at all. The courts of law are closed until November, and personal security, as promised by the law, is an empty name. And how can or will a war be carried on? For the first requisite, soldiers, there is no sufficient or proper material here. The agricultural population, which in other countries furnishes the fighting masses, is here, of course, ineligible for the purpose, and ever requires armed power to keep it in order. There have been very alarming disturbances among the blacks; on more than one plantation, the assistance of the authorities has been called in to overcome the open resistance of the slaves; and an invasion from the north, especially if commanded by men like Montgomery from Kansas, or Lane, would, without doubt, be immediately followed by a general rising of the blacks. Thus, the supply of soldiers must come principally, if not exclusively, from among the populations of the towns—day laborers, inferior tradesmen, such as tailors, and cobblers, most of them married men with families, unaccustomed to the hardships inseparable from a state of war, and therefore ill adapted for active service. I know that the workhouses in this city are cleared night after night, and all men who can stand and walk are enlisted without inquiry or inspection into their fitness for military servive. No medical staff is as yet appointed to any of the corps; the clothing provided for these soldiers is of the worst and most unfit description—in most cases consisting of course and loose flannel, which is not only easily destroyed, but promotes filth and vermin. I have seen letters from young men (some of very respectable and wealthy families) with their regiments at Pensacola, stating that they are fed on salt pork and beans; that they are in rags, and devoured by vermin; and that numbers of them are laid up with illness in private houses. About 3,000 men were encamped on the road to the lake Pontchartrain, and had in one fortnight a thousand sick. The few strong vigorous men who have enlisted may be fit food for powder; but will they be capable of executing without previous exercise or practice such strategic operations as can lead to any successful warfare? I leave you to judge of the chances in favor of the south, and will complete my attempt at depicting our condition by stating that trade and commerce are at a stand still, and the circulation of money is—nil."

CULPABLE IMPATIENCE.—There is, in a few of our daily journals, a manifestation of impatience at what they call the slowness of Gen. Scott, which can be productive of nothing but injury to our cause, and to those who manifest this uneasy spirit.—At such a time, certainly, patriotism would require that personal griefs or spites should be swallowed up in love of country, and that however much we may dislike individuals connected with the government, we should not suffer that dislike to lead us to propagate misstatements concerning the action of the government, or attempt in any way to embarrass its plans or purposes.

Gen. Scott has distinguished himself for fifty years past as a military commander of extraordinary prudence, skill and foresight. He has never lost a battle, never thrown away an opportunity which could be made available for accomplishing his ultimate purpose, while at the same time he has been wonderfully chary of human life, and has preferred to execute his plans by measures which should compel the retreat and disorganization of his enemy, rather than by bloody and destructive battles. The great generals of Europe have all paid tribute to his high and commanding ability and prescience, and by the common testimony of the military men of Christendom, he ranks as a great Captain of the Age.

Nor is there the slightest evidence that time has impaired his intellectual powers or his judgment. Every step betrays the old segacity, the cool deliberation, the thorough knowledge of what is needed for the successful prosecution of the war, and the steady forcing the enemy back, demoralized at every step, upon their own lines, with an iron rigor, which, like the imperceptibly moving walls of the fabled iron prison, though making but slow progress, will surely end in crushing out the life of the rebellion.

Depend upon it, Davis and Beauregard and Lee know, and shudder as they realize it, that every day is but hastening their irrevocable doom; and appreciating as they do the terrors of their position, they would gladly give all they had hoped for of glory, fame or wealth, to be placed where they were six months ago.

That a man of no military capacity should undertake to dictate to Gen. Scott what he shall do within a given time, and how he shall do it—shall attempt to insist that a city one hundred and thirty miles distant, on a route impeded by numerous batteries and obstructions, shall be taken within ten days, by marching fifty thousand green troops upon it, leaving, meantime, the National Capitol unprotected, may be good sensation journalism, but it is certainly very sublime impudence.—New York Examiner.

Hon. Edward A. Newton, of Pittsfield, Mass., has written an interesting letter on East India cotton. Mr. N. first visited India more than fifty years ago, and feels perfectly sure "that before the expiration of another decade of years, the world will be flooded with cotton from India."

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

The President's Message.

The massage of President Lincoln needs little comment from the press. It speaks for itself and the people. It is "Old Abe's" production throughout, having his peculiarities of style, and terseness of argument.

The message explains many things of which the people have been in doubt. It tells us why Forts Sumter and Pickens were not reinforced at once. It was not from any indisposition on the part of the government, but from inability; and the President gives us the reasons. The people will recognize the explanation as valid and justifiable.

From the statement in relation to the call for volunteers for three years, the increase of the regular army and navy, and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, we perceive that the President has been in doubt about his powers. "These measures," says he, "whether strictly legal or not, were ventured upon what appeared to be a popular demand for a public necessity, trusting then as now, that congress would ratify them."

It is probable that Mr. Lincoln desired this ratification, before he entered fully upon an advance movement of the whole army to crush the rebels. He undoubtedly felt that the authority of congress should be given for these acts, "not strictly legal," before he went further; and the preparation for offensive measures had outrun his expectation after he called congress to assemble on the 4th of July. The army is ready, and waiting for congress to legalize the acts of the president. When this is done, we shall probably witness a vigorous advance upon the traitors from all directions. This we conceive to to be the explanation of the present apparent hesitation to go forward; and not because the government is waiting for compromise, as has been feared by some.

The message is perfectly explicit in relation to compromising with the traitors.—"No compromise in this could be a cure," is a doctrine that will be responded to by all. The traitors are trying to destroy the government, and the executive is endeavoring to enforce the laws and preserve the constitution. Herein there is no room for a compromise; and, as Mr. Lincoln says, "having chosen our course without guilt and with a pure purpose, let us renew our trust in God, and go forward without fear, and with manly hearts."

We conceive, however, that the argument in relation to state rights was not needed. The message would have been more perfect without it. Secession is state rights run mad, just an obliteration of state lines, and a concentration of all power in the national government, as we have seen suggested, would be federalism run mad. Neither are right, and no argument is needed to enforce so plain a proposition.

The call for $400,000,000 and 400,000 men appears large, but it is well to give the president ample means to put down this rebellion. If the whole is not needed, it will not be used. It is possible, too, that we may have to attend to certain external enemies, who appear none too friendly just now. Let us be prepared for all emergencies.

Jim Green Taken.—Gov. Wood, at the head of about twenty troops, left Quincy on Friday and went over into Missouri, near Monticello, and captured the notorious Jim Green, ex-United States Senator. When taken he was making as good time as horse-flesh and the state of Missouri roads would permit. The report that he had escaped on foot, leaving his horse in the woods, appears to be incorrect. He had either regained his horse or "borrowed" one on his way. When the troops came up with him, they were on the full run, and fired shots at the fugitive. His horse threw him off, and he was taken without trouble, and brought back to Canton and placed in the college building, which the federal troops are using as barracks for the present.

☞ Attorney General Bates has prepared an opinion at some length, concerning the writ of habeas corpus, special reference being had to the Merryman case. He holds that the functions of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government are so distinct and final that neither can clash with the other, and that the previous judgment by the supreme court against the Executive's right of suspending the writ of habeas corpus, would not continue a binding precedent. The action of the President is fully endorsed in the document.

☞ General army order No. 40, constitutes the state of Illinois and the states and territories west of the Mississippi river and on this side of the Rocky Mountains, including New Mexico, to a separate military command, to be known as the western department, under command of Maj. General Fremont, U. S. A., with its head-quarters at St. Louis.

Breckinridge in the Senate.

It will be noticed that John C. Breckinridge occupies his place in the senate, and that the political majority in that body have placed him upon the committee on foreign relations. The country will be suprised at this. Unless common fame belies him, Breckinridge has been doing his best to carry the state of Kentucky into the southern confederacy. He was the candidate of the traitors for the presidency, and since the election, has openly taken the stump against the efforts of the government to put down the treason of Jeff. Davis. He is more than suspected of disloyalty; he is generally believed, even in his own state, to sympathize in the attempt now making to dissolve the Union by force. What propriety is there, if such is the case, in placing this man upon the most important committee in the senate, where he will be in a position to learn all the secrets relating to our intercourse with foreign governments? Our foreign affairs are in a delicate condition, and at this time need the earnest and faithful attention of loyal men, instead of the prying and hostile observation of those who will not hesitate to give information to traitors of any difficulty with foreign countries, which may be brought to the attention of this committee. It would be far better to expel Breckinridge from the Senate, instead of honoring him with a position upon the most important committee of that body. It is within our memory that Joshua R. Giddings was expelled from the house for presenting a petition for the dissolution of the Union, although he at the time protested that he had no sympathy with the petitioners, justifying his act upon the ground of the right of the people to petition upon all subjects connected with the government. But here we have a member of the senate who is in favor of dissolving the Union, and who has made public efforts to accomplish that treasonable object. We believe he ought forthwith to be expelled from the senate; but the least that body can do is to strike his name from the committee on foreign affairs, and to discountenance his presence by withholding all confidence from him as a member of that body. How can congress expect to clear the country of traitors, when it will not purge itself from them?

Natural Sciences in the State University.

The cultivation of the natural sciences in our State University under the able instruction of Prof. Carr, is one of the best features of that institution. We learn from the remarks of a correspondent in the Argus in relation to the recent examination at the university, that this department still retains a prominence, where it has so long held a front rank. Prof. Carr is one of the best lecturers in the country, and as instructor of youth he has few superiors. Ardently devoted to the investigation of all subjects connected with his department, he has the rare faculty of imparting to others the abundant stores of his own mind, in a manner so plain that comprehension is easy, while his enthusiasm invests every subject, however dry in detail, with almost the interest of romance. In regard to the method of instruction, the correspondent alluded to says:—

Every member of the class not only appeared to have a good understanding of the principles of Chemistry, Geology and Botony, but what is far better, they seemed to have imbibed a thorough love for these studies, and to enter into them with ardent zeal.

This is doubtless owing in part to the method of instruction. They first listen to the lecture of the professor; they then investigate the subject further by the aid of text books; and on the following day they discuss the same subject themselves. Thus by continually telling what they know, they not only come to know it more thoroughly, but they also acquire, as the examination well showed, a high degree of proficiency in that highest of all arts, the art of communicating our thoughts to others.

But whatever may be the cause, the fact is one that we have reason to be proud of, and one which I wish all of the young men of our state could know and appreciate.—That there is scarcely an institution in the country which affords so good advantages for securing a good, practical knowledge of the natural sciences.

This we believe to be entirely true, and we second the wish of this correspondent, that every young man who is not able to take a longer course, could be persuaded to spend at least one year there, in the study of natural science. It would make him not only a wiser, a better, and a happier man, but also a healthier and a richer one.

In this connection, we desire to make a suggestion in relation to the university: It has been painfully evident, while our state was using every effort to supply its quota of the grand army for the defense of the republic, that it was impossible to find officers of the requisite capacity to command our troops—why should we not introduce military instruction into our university, as a part of its course? Military drill would be the best kind of physical exercise for the young, and being attractive as well as of practical utility, would induce constant attention to it. We merely make the suggestion without designing to enter into the subject further at this time.

Arrival of the Great Eastern.—The Great Eastern arrived at Farther Point, on Saturday. Breadstuffs are firmer.

Lord Chancellor Campbell died suddenly from a rupture of a blood-vessel.

The Sultan of Turkey died on the 25th. He is succeeded by his brother.

Sir James Fergusen, in the house of commons condemned the reinforcements to Canada.

D'Iserali also thought the government was incurring serious responsibilities.

Lord Palmerston defended the act of the government as the usual precautionary measure of all Governments in the immediate vicinity of hostilities. The step indicated no distrust of the faith of the northern states, and no want of confidence in Canada. The time was fit and proper, because reinforcements can only be sent to Canada in the summer.

The loss by the conflagration in London was over £2,000,000. Some estimate it as high as £4,000,000; mainly insured.

The recognition of the Kingdom of Italy by France is formally announced.

☞ The Philadelphia Press says that the Prince Napoleon and his wife, after making an eastern tour, will visit the United States.

Important Movements.

We regret that the thunder storm this afternoon prevented the reception of telegraphic dispatches, for we expected some news worth publishing. If the secessionists don't run away, there will be, (if there has not already been,) a fight of some magnitude in the neighborhood of Winchester. The rebel Generals Jackson and Johnston have effected a junction, and a large detachment has moved from Manassas to their aid. They will have about 35,000, and if Col. Stone unites his column of 4,000 federal troops from the neighborhood of Harper's Ferry with Gen. Patterson, he will have about the same number; we may therefore expect a decisive battle, or a footrace very soon.

The Fourth at Fort Atkinson.

The celebration at Fort Atkinson on the Fourth was one of the most appropriate and best conducted attractions it has ever been my good fortune to attend. The arrangements were ample and perfect, and were in the true picnic style. Hon. Dwight Foster was president of the day, Joseph Winslow and Harry Ingerson, vice presidents; Rev. S. S. Bicknell, chaplain; H. H. Wilds, marshall; Newton Jones, as'st marshal; M. Paris M'Laughlin, toast master.

The procession formed in front of the Green Mountain House, and marched to the grove of Milo Jones, Esq., escorted by the Fort Atkinson brass band, which discoursed first rate music. At the grove, a stand and seats were provided, and five long tables were loaded with the choicest viands, in quantities to suit the largest capacity. The exercises on the ground were: Prayer by the chaplain, music by the band, reading the declaration of independence by J. K. Purdy, and oration by H. N. Comstock, of Janesville, after which six hundred ladies and gentlemen sat down to dinner.

One very interesting feature of this celebration was the presence of thirty-four charmingly beautiful young ladies, tastefully dressed in red, white and blue, representing the thirty-four states of the American Union. The presence of this galaxy of beauty, intelligence and patriotism, brought forcibly to one's mind the sublime beauties of this grand temple of liberty which our fathers reared amid scenes of carnage and blood.

The proceeds of the dinner were donated to Messrs. Proctor & Head, to aid them in rebuilding their flouring mill at the Fort, which has recently been destroyed, and on which there was no insurance.

Another feature of the celebration was, every one of the three thousand seemed to have come to worship at the altar of liberty, and there to pledge anew their devotion to their country. *

From Fortress Monroe.—The Monticello made a reconnoisance up James River on the 5th inst. Five miles from Newport News she discovered a rebel force of about 7,000 on the shore. She opened a brisk fire upon them, and eight companies were sent by land to sustain her. About 5 o'clock in the morning 25 of Hawkins' Zouaves encountered a rebel force, supposed to number about 150, including 25 cavalry and one field-piece, seven miles from Newport News. It is reported that three of the rebels were shot, and also six of Hawkins' Zouaves.—The latter sent for reinforcements, and five companies were sent to sustain them.

Military.—Commissions have been issued to Thomas O. Bigney as captain, Henry M. Balls 1st lieutenant, and O. P. Lacy as 2d lieutenant of the Orfordville volunteers.

Also to Chas. End as captain, John Heninger as 1st lieutenant and F. W. Pindarkelear as 2d lieutenant, of the Mayville Rifles.

Unconditional Union Men.—The citizens of Horsetown, California, have raised the Stars and Stripes on a tall pole near the bridge over Clear Creek, and just beyond the flag and staff they have erected a gibbet, with this inscription: "Salute the flag unconditionally or hang!"

Drowning of Capt. Wilson's Son.—A dispatch has been received in Milwaukee, announcing that Robert Wilson, only son of the late Capt. John Wilson, of Lady Elgin memory, was drowned while bathing in the vicinity of Cleveland on Monday. Mrs. Wilson, the measure of whose afflictions is thus filled so overflowingly, was stopping with friends in Buffalo when the melancholy accident happened. The deceased son was in his fourteenth year, and is said to have been a worthy son of his noble hearted father.

Fatal Accident at Camp Utley.—A fatal accident occurred at Camp Utley, Racine, Saturday morning. Chas. Preston, of Beloit, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, by a private named Bal Daes, both members of the Jefferson City Guards. It seems that Preston was on guard, and his musket was lying on the ground, when Bal Daes picked it up and pointed it at Preston, and snapped it, thinking it was not loaded, as there was no cap on the tube, when it went off. The ball passed through his heart. Preston lived in Beloit. Daes lives in Racine.

Suicide at Madison.—Mr. Frederick Brasser, a bookbinder, in the employ of Messrs. Bliss, Eberhard & Festner, at Madison, committed suicide on Thursday night last by shooting himself with a double-bareled shot gun. He was found early the next morning, at the head of the first flight of stairs leading to the bindery, and although the body was still warm, it was supposed that he shot himself about midnight. He was about 28 years of age. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married but three or four weeks—she being his second wife. He married his first wife in Germany, and came over here, leaving her there. It is said that he had reason to suppose she had died, and so he married again.—But recently his first wife confronted him and his second wife, having come over with her father from the old country. The matter was arranged, however, with the first wife and her father, but still it is supposed this had something to do with his suicide.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, July 6.

The substance of the news by morning report is that a forward movement is being made in good earnest.

It is said that Gen. Johnston of the rebel forces is disposed to make a stand at last. He is directly in front of Gen. Patterson's army, 7 miles off, with his command consisting of 10,000 men, of which 600 are cavalry.

By Sunday Fairfax will no doubt be in federal possession, and by a week from that day our troops will encamp at Manassas.

It is not believed here (Washington) that the rebels will make any stand at Manassas Junction.

Colt received on order from the war department for 25,000 Minnie muskets.

The session of the senate is growing animated, and candidates for clerk increase daily. Gen. DeWitt Clinton Clark will doubtless be elected. Col. Forney is making vigorous efforts for the position.

Robert Morris of Philadelphia has been appointed chief clerk of the house by Mr. Ethridge.

Times correspondent says: Our troops continue to cross to Virginia, but does not believe there will be an advance for some days. A general movement is to occur early in the coming week, but the precise time will, of course, be made to correspond to movements of the divisions of Gens. McClellan and Patterson.

Since the rank of major general has been conferred upon Gen. Lyon, of Missouri, it is probable that Mr. Blair will be promoted to a brigadier general, and will soon take the field.

Mr. Carlisle in the house received a dispatch from Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, today, announcing that two Ohio regiments had surprised a nest of rebels at Buckhannon, Va., capturing 400, killing 30, and seizing 200 horses.

BALTIMORE, July 5.

Col. Stone is reported to be at Sandy Hook with 4,000 troops. He will be joined by 1,000 more to-morrow and cross the Potomac to aid Gen. Patterson, who is at Martinsburg with 22,000 men.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale moved that the senate proceed to elect an assistant door-keeper. Forty votes were cast—Isaac Bassett 30, Chas. Jones 8, scattering 2. Mr. Bassett was declared elected.

Mr. Wilson presented several bills, of which he gave notice on Thursday.

Mr. Grimes moved that the bill to promote the efficiency of the army be referred to a special committee of nine.

After discussion the bill was referred to a special committee of nine, consisting of Messrs. Wilson, Hale, Latham, Sherman, Powell, Cowan, King, Kennedy, Howe.

The other bills were referred to the military committee.

Mr. Polk presented the credentials of Waldo P. Johnson, senator elect of Missouri, who took the oath. Adjourned.

The Vice President announced standing committees as follows:

Foreign Relations.—Sumner, Collamer, Doolittle, Wilmot, Browning, Polk, Breckinridge.

Military Affairs and Militia.—Wilson, King, Baker, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Rice and Latham.

Finance.—Fessenden, Simmons, Sherman, Howe, Hunter, Pearce, Bright, McDougal.

Naval Affairs.—Hale, Grimes, Foot, Sherman, Thompson, Nicholson and McDougal.

Commerce.—Chandler, King, Morrill, Wilson, TenEyck, Saulsbury, Johnson.

Judiciary.—Trumbull, Foster, TenEyck, Cowan, Harris, Bayard, Powell, Clingman.

Post Office and Post Roads.—Cowan, Dixon, Wade, Trumbull, Rice, Bright, Latham.

Revolutionary Claims.—King, Chandler, Wilkinson, Howe, Nesmith.

Public Lands.—Harlan, Bingham, Clark, Pomeroy, Johnson, Rice, Nesmith.

Claims.—Clark, Simmons, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy, Polk, Bayard.

District of Columbia.—Grimes, Dixon, Morrill, Wade, Anthony, Kennedy, Powell.

Indian Affairs.—Doolittle, Wilkinson, Cowan, Foster, Lane of Kansas, Harlan, Nesmith.

Courts, Patents and the Patent Office.—Simmons, Sumner, Cowan, Thompson, Saulsbury.

Pensions.—Foster, Bingham, Lane of Indiana, Howe, Wilmot, Pomeroy and Saulsbury.

Public Buildings and Grounds.—Foote, Anthony, Chandler, Bright, Kennedy, Wade, Wilkinson, Hale, Browning, Johnson of Tennessee, Bragg.

Engrossed Bills.—Lane of Indiana, Morrill, Latham.

To audit and contract contingent expenses of the Senate.—Dixon, Clark, Johnson of Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

It has been decided in republican senatorial caucus to push business forward with all possible rapidity and then adjourn.

War appropriations are likely to be made at once.

Senator Wilson this morning introduced bills for an increase of the army. The general opinion is that they will be put on their passage with as little delay as possible.

Yesterday, as one of the rebel regiments was advancing on Fairfax, one of their own regiments mistook them for regulars and commenced firing on them. They killed eight and wounded several.

Another assassination was perpetrated on a fire zouave who was killed on the street by a concealed foe.

On good authority advices from our ministers at London and Paris, give the most emphatic assurances that England and France will fully respect our blockade, cotton or no cotton.

Evening Post's special.—It is rumored that Crittenden and Wyckliffe, of Kentucky, are preparing a plan of compromise to be presented to congress. It is, however, quite certain that no compromise measures would receive votes in congress, even if it were received at all.

Six guns were planted at lower Vienna, and six more close by Fairfax, on the road from Winchester to Alexandria.

Sen. Chandler's bill to confiscate property of rebel officers, is a bomb shell in the ranks of the enemy.

NEW YORK, July 6.

The report of the secretary of the navy states the force in commission as being eighty-two vessels, carrying eleven hundred guns, besides several steamers and other small crafts temporarily in the service. Twenty-three gun boats are now contracted for.

Since the 4th of March two hundred and fifty-nine officers have resigned and been dismissed.

The report recommends the appointment of a director of ordinance, to have supervision of details of that branch of that service; and also for the appointment of a board to enquire into the expediency of building iron steamers; also an increase of the clerical force of the department; also for the appointment of an assistant secretary.

Estimates for service, $30,309,520.

CAIRO, July 6.

Government has decided to accept all artillery companies for three years or for the war, as they prefer.

A government boat, with Gen. Prentiss on board, made an excursion down the river as far as Norfolk this afternoon. The result of the expedition is not yet known.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

Gen. Wilson added a section to his bill for organizing a volunteer force. It authorizes the colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, adjutant and quarter master of each regiment to frank letters for troops under their command; number of regiment, and campany, and the name of the writer must be superscribed on each letter.

High authority says 12,000 troops crossed over the Potomac within 24 hours.

Additional to Great Eastern.—The Times continues to maintain that Americans have no ground for their abuse of England, beyond mortification at England's lack of appreciation. It says that the northern people have thrown themselves into a passion, and must be left to recover.

Sir Archibald Allison, in a letter to C. M. Clay, contends that the American constitution is a failure, and recommends national church and monarchy as a remedy.

The conflagration in London telegraphed by the Persia was the most disastrous that has occurred for generations. Some estimate the extent of loss from 3 to 4 millions. Some articles of produce advanced in consequence of the great quantities consumed.

LEAVENWORTH, July 6.

Gov. Jackson's secretary has called a session of the Missouri legislature to meet at Sarcoxit, seventy miles south of Fort Scott, for the purpose of passing an ordinance of secession. The rebels in western Missouri, were concentrating at that point, and fugitives from Jasper county were hourly arriving at Fort Scott, and report terrible state of affairs in that section.

It is reported that Dr. Wilson, Dr. Vellanan and other leading Union men have been hung. In some cases escaping fugitives had been followed into Kansas by secessionists.

Montgomery with 400 men entered Missouri on the 27th, but his object has not transpired.

FORT MONROE, July 5.

Col. Baker's regiment arrived from Baltimore this morning and have encamped this side Hampton creek. Col. Baker it was supposed would be made brigadier general.

Col. Duryea was yesterday promoted to rank of brigadier general, command at Camp Hamilton.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 7.

Sunday was a great day in Washington. Telegraphic advicess to Gen. Scott from Gen. Patterson, at Martinsburg, say a great force is coming from Manassas Junction to reinforce the rebels under Johnston and Jackson, who have formed a union near Winchester. Patterson is in danger of being driven back from Jackson, and asks for troops. Ten regiments were going to-day and last night, mostly New Yorkers, by rail to the Relay House and Frederick.—The column under Gen. Sanford arrived at Martinsburg three days ago.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. McClellan. It is supposed he has not had time to come to Patterson's support. This movement of the enemy will be met by an advance of the whole of our Virginia force towards Manassas Junction at the earliest moment—possibly within two days. It is hoped that the next movement from the Junction will be great enough to enable Gen. McDowell to force his way between these divisions and shut in the advancing rebel column between Patterson's and McDowell's commands, thus compelling a fight or a footrace or a surrender. It is thought that Col. Stone at Harper's Ferry will be forced to take the Maryland side and join Sanford on his advance. Probably the first battle will be between Winchester and Martinsburg, with 35,000 on each side.

The streets are full of troops, baggage wagons and horses, all day. The boys march with high spirits, panting for a fight. They are filing past my window now, singing in great glee.

The feeling here to-day is that if Patterson is driven back the enemy will get in our rear and derange the plans. Patterson has 21,000, Stone 4,000, and Sanford 10,000.—They ought not to be beaten.

There is talk that the increasing af the regular army will be forbidden by Congress.

A report on the streets that a fight is going on at Fairfax, and a report from Baltimore that Patterson is beaten and retreating, are canards though they may reach you from New York.

Gov. Yates has appointed Tom Marshall of Coles county, colonel of the cavalry regiment. It is a good appointment. They are both here asking equipments from the government.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

OSHKOSH, July 8.

Destructive tornado swept over this city at 2 o'clock this morning, unroofing houses in every direction, blowing down trees, and doing immense damage.

Large flouring mill of Green & Powers is unroofed, and the upper portion demolished.

Store of Bigger & Hill unroofed and filled with water, damaging goods to a large amount.

Three stores on Ferry street have their entire front walls blown down.

The steamer Shawanaw City, lying at the dock, is a complete wreck, her upper works being entirely blown away.

Steamer Berlin City has smoke stacks, pilot house and upper cabin carried away, and otherwise damaged.

Houses in all parts of the city were lifted up and carried several feet, in some cases being turned completely around, and some entirely demolished.

Wind was accompanied by a violent hail storm, not a house in the city but has sustained more or less damage.

Lightning was terriffic, striking in several places.

No loss of life as yet reported.

☞ A man named Semple, who is connected with one of the oldest and most respectable families of Covington, Ky., but now degenerated into a mere sot, was sold at public auction by the sheriff, on the 22d, for invetèrate vagrancy. Andy Herod, the jailer, became his purchaser at the sum of one dime, and will have an opportunity to get his money back by Semple's services until the first of Sepember.

☞ By a letter from Pensacola, under date of June 24th of June, we learn that the Vanderbilt had arrived there with Billy Wilson's New York Zouaves.

Louisiana, with a free population of 354,000, has sent over 12,000 troops to the seat of war. The governor has refused to allow any more to leave the state.

☞ It is said at Washington that no member of the cabinet saw the message of the president until after it was delivered.—Those portions of it recommending a $400,000,000 loan, and making the distinction between the patriotism of the common soldiers and officers, were received with immense applause, on the floor and in the galleries.

Mathias Point.—It seems that the rebels have strongly fortified themselves at Mathias Point, since the failure of Captain Ward to dislodge them, and their batteries now command the Potomac. For the present, the navigation of that river by our vessels is rendered extra hazardous, if not wholly impossible, and what gives the fact more prominence, is the additional statement that Secretary Cameron, who had been to Fortress Monroe in company with Gen. Fremont, cannot get back that way. If so, he is caught in his own trap. The War department, from the first, failed to appreciate Captain Ward's idea of the importance of this Point, and even now, while Mr. Cameron is absent, we see the same spirit manifested in his department. They will confer with Secretary Welles about sending a force, it is said, "in a few days;" meanwhile hoping the rebels may be called off by movements elsewhere.

The position is this: Mathias Point is about sixty miles below Washington, and twenty below Acquia Creek. It is a bluff, well wooded, and just the place for concealed or any other batteries. Besides, the river makes an abrupt angle here and the channel runs in close to the shore, while on the Maryland side it spreads out broad and shallow. The Point is in fact a peninsula, commanding the river approaches in either direction. Back of it are the entrenchment lines of the enemy around Fredericksburg and along the Rappahannan. Capt. Ward, as a shrewd officer, early saw the importance of holding it, and unsupported as he was by troops, he perilled and lost his life in the attempt to establish a foothold there, ere the rebels should have rendered it too late. If their batteries operate upon Mr. Cameron's own transport vessel, what a calamity it would be, surely!—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Cameron was obliged to come back to Washington via. Baltimore, as we learn by telegraphic despatches.

DENTAL CARD.
B. F. Pendleton,
The oldest resident Dentist in the city, is still in practice, and continues to operate in his profession in all its departments. In those cases requiring surgical treatment, his large experience affords the best guaranty that they will be carefully and skillfully attended. In mechanical and artistic dentistry, all work will be well done and in the best mode, and (where customary with the profession,) warranted.
D. FRANK STRONG, who has been with Dr. P. during the past five years, still remains, and one or both may be found at the office during all business hours.
Office, as heretofore, in Hutson's block, next door to McKey & Bro's. Hours, in summer and fall, from 7 A. M. to 7½ and 8 P. M.

Dentistry.
M. B. Johnson still continues the practice of Dentistry at his new location, West Milwaukee street, over Moseley & Bro's Bookstore, Janesville, Wis. He is now manufacturing artificial Dentures on Vulcanised Rubber Base. This substance has been thoroughly tested, and found to be superior to many others. It is very strong and light, and is worn with greater ease and comfort than most anything else, and can be afforded at a price which places it within the reach of all. Call and see it. He also continues to make the Continuous Gum Work, which is superior to all others; together with all other styles of work now in use.

PROCLAMATION.

Attention of all persons owning dogs is called to the following ordinance:

"An Ordinance to prevent the running at large of Dogs, and to authorize the Destruction of the same in a summary manner:

SECTION 1. That every person residing in the city of Janesville owning or having in his or her possession any dog or bitch, and suffering the same to run at large, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars for every dog and ten dollars for every bitch thus suffered to run at large, unless protected as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Any person paying to the treasurer of the city one dollar for each dog and five dollars for each bitch, shall be entitled to a license for such dog or bitch to run at large to the end of the year in which said license is issued, providing such person procuring a licence shall put upon the neck of such dog or bitch so licensed to run at large a metalic collar, with the owners name engraved thereon in legible letters, and shall pay the city clerk fifty cents for granting such a license. And provided further, that such dog or bitch, so licensed, shall be securely muzzled, so as to prevent them from biting. Persons complying with the provisions of this section shall not be liable to the penalties named in the first section of this ordinance.

SEC. 3. All dogs or bitches running at large in this city, which are not securely muzzled, so as to prevent their biting, shall be liable to be killed."

The constables of the city are hereby instructed to enforce this ordinance.

The necessity for prompt action in this matter is evident to many citizens from what has been witnessed within the last twenty-four hours.

I therefore order that there be no delay in exterminating every dog not securely muzzled, running at large within the city limits.

J. BODWELL DOE, Mayor.

Take Care of Your Dogs.

We publish to-day a proclamation by the Mayor directing the constables of the city to enforce the dog ordinance. It is just what is needed, and every dog not taken care of and confined should be killed wherever he is found. Human life is too valuable to be endangered by some worthless and perhaps ownerless cur.

☞ The following has been sent us by the telegraph operator in this city:

July 8th.

$50 REWARD.—On Saturday a copper wire was attached to the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien telegraph line, and run down side of the pole into the ground, near Stoughton, thereby cutting off communication with the west for some foul purpose.—A reward of fifty dollars is offered by the Wisconsin State Telegraph Company, for information leading to the detection of the person or persons who done the mischief.

TO FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.—Packages made up by volunteers for their families prior to their departure from Madison, are at the residence of Mayor Doe. The parents or friends for whom they are designed are requested to call and examine them.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.—Besides George Drake, before reported, the mail reports a member of Capt. Mitchell's company as killed at Williamsport. The name is Sergeant Graham.

Frederick Hutchings, of company E, (Madison Guards) was severely wounded. He is the color sergeant of the regiment.

HARD USAGE.—A correspondent of the Milwaukee Wisconsin, writing from Camp Randall, says:

"We left camp at 10 o'clock, (4th July) and were kept on the march all the time from then until 2 o'clock, without a drink of water or anything else. The dinner which we were to have in the Park, was, like everything else among the missing.—We could not get water without paying for it, and we were kept under a hot sun, and in a heavy cloud of dust all the time, to please the people of Madison and vicinity, and put money into their pockets."

While in Madison we heard the same complaint from soldiers in the camp. The military procession was the feature of the celebration, and surely some provision ought to have been made for the comfort of the men who made the chief attraction of the day.

WHISKY AND CRIME.—Last Friday night Patrick Sullivan went drunk to his home in Beloit, and commenced abusing his wife. Among other proceedings, he threw a stone at her, which she dodged, and which struck a child in the head and fractured the skull. He was arrested, and Saturday sent to Janesville in charge of constable E. G. Smith. When crossing Bridge Creek bridge, in a buggy, he made an attempt to escape by jumping from the buggy. In doing so, he frightened the horses attached to the buggy,—and Mr. Smith, buggy and horses, were thrown down the bank of the creek. Sullivan made his escape into the grove, pursued by Smith, who kept watch of his course, and sent to town for Sheriff Putnam. After help arrived, a search was made for the prisoner, and he was discovered by Mr. Fredendall concealed in some bushes. He was again arrested and safely confined in jail.

CURRANTS.—The currants this year are large with long clusters. We acknowledge the receipt of good specimens from the garden of Judge Knowlton, and also a bush hanging full, from Mr. Almon Ruggles.

☞ The letter of our correspondent will be found quite interesting. It contains particulars not before received in relation to the battle near Williamsport.

THE COMET, which suddenly appeared in full splendor on the night of the 30th ult., is fast receding from the earth. Astronomers no not know what to make of it. Mr. Bradley of the Alleghany Observatory, thinks it is approaching the sun at an inconceivable rate. On the night of the 2d of July, it was observed three hours by J. M. Gillis, superintendent of the U. S. Naval Observatory, at Washington. During that time the dimensions of the whole mass had increased to at least double the original size, the outlines becoming indistinct. At the rate it is now leaving us, it will become invisible in a short time.

☞ A few tickets for the excursion to Rockford to-morrow are still unsold, and in the morning may be obtained at the Galena Ticket office. Those desiring to do so can leave their baskets at the church as early as 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

The Battle near Williamsport.

HAYNESVILLE, July 2, 1861.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Last Saturday afternoon the first regiment of Wisconsin, in company with the eleventh of Pennsylvania, left Hagerstown and marched to Downsville, a village distant from the Potomac one and a half miles. We first encamped in a sandy field, and remained there during that night. On Sunday morning we moved our tents to a better field, and remained there during Sunday. On Sunday evening we received orders to get ready to march at 1 o'clock Monday morning. One o'clock came, however, but we did not march.—The reason is as follows: The rebels found out that we were going to ford the river at the dam near Downsville, so they destroyed the dam, thus making it necessary for us to march to Williamsport, which we did on Monday forenoon.

At Williamsport we found about 10,000 federal troops, mostly from Pennsylvania. We pitched tents on a bluff which rises up from the Maryland side of the Potomac. Words poorly express the joy and enthusiasm that filled every heart upon beholding the river and the opposite Virginia banks. We saw a few secessionists dodging around among the trees. One of my tent-mates, in company with a regular, took a common-size copy of the stars and stripes across the river and nailed it to a housed belonging to the captain of a rebel company.—The captain, however, was away from home—three women only being in the house. They were somewhat frightened.

On Monday afternoon I visited Captain Doubleday's battery, which was very near our encampment, and commands a full range of the river. There are three pieces, two 24-pounders and a 56 pound howitzer. They are truly formidable guns, and manned by fine soldiers, many of whom were at the siege of Fort Sumter.

This morning at two o'clock we struck our tents without signals, threw aside all superfluous baggage, retaining only five tents of our thirteen, and forded the Potomac, reaching the opposite bank about half-past 3. (I notice you said we were pretty good at blowing our own horn. Observe that we had the honor of leading the sixth brigade across the river, which fact I think justifies some of our previous assertions as to our ability.)

No sooner had we crossed the river than three companies—A, F and K—were deployed as shirmishers, taking a clean sweep through forest, swamp, grain fields and marshes, climbing fences and jumping creeks, until about 8 o'clock when we halted at a house just deserted by a secession family. Just before halting, one of us shot at a squad of cavalry, which made them disappear at a lively rate. During our rapid march we found a few knapsacks and a rifle, probably left by rebel pickets. After a short halt we again advanced. Soon we heard that a rebel force of about 1,800 men was lying in wait for us. At this news we filed right into a piece of woods and waited until the columns, for the protection of which we had been skirmishing, came up to us.

When they got pretty near we again took the road in front of them, and in a few minutes more our pickets received a shot from the enemy. As soon as a company of Federal artillery had ascertained the position of the rebels, our regiment advanced and engaged them. Volley after volley was fired from each side. Very soon Fred. Hutching, our flag bearer, was wounded in the leg below the knee, and was carried from the field—one of the color guard taking the flag.

At this juncture two brass field pieces, belonging to Perkins' artillery, came whirling into the field to the right of us, each drawn by six horses, upon a dead run. In an almost incredible short time they were throwing shell and ball at the enemy at a rate which surprised the uninitiated. They had fired but a few rounds when the Pennsylvania 23d came to our aid at full run, shouting like mad men; but they were too late, for Co. E of our regiment had just charged upon the rebels and driven them from their position. Soon came two more brass guns, and Federal troops by the thousand. During all this time our regiment stood the fire from the enemy not flinching in the least, although balls whistled past us on all sides. Five were wounded, of these, Sergeant Graham, of Co. B., mortally. One only was killed, Samuel Drake, of Co. A. A ball passed directly through his heart. His last words were, "O my Mother."

As the rebels fled the Wisconsin regiment formed into a column and followed them to a piece of woods when they again made a stand near their battery of four guns.—While our regiment were preparing for another skirmish, a regiment of Pennsylvania troops from another direction rushed forward and closed the battle by giving the confederates such a volley as compelled them to make a sudden retreat. In this attack they had 1 killed, and 3 wounded. During the next two hours our regiment made a sweep through the woods, but found no more hostile troops. A company of Pennsylvania troops were taken prisoners by a body of the enemy's cavalry. The Pennsylvania boys thinking their captors were federal troops until it was too late to save themselves.

As yet I can get no reliable information as to the number of confederates killed and wounded. Two were found dead upon the field of battle, and some of our men saw the enemy pick up fourteen of their own men and put them into wagons.

There are at least 20,000 federal troops very near here and 15,000 within sight of where I am now writing. To-morrow we shall move to Martinsburg away from here about 9 miles. At that place there are about 10,000 confederates, and a large battery. All are anxious to go. To-day's experience increases rather than diminishes our desire to engage the rebels again. I am sorry to say that several houses have been ransacked by U. S. troops, which no doubt will turn the Union men here who have been for us, against us.

Besides other difficulties I am holding a candle between my knees while the blaze flickers so I can hardly see. So you must make a liberal allowance for mistakes.—Nearly all in good health and spirits.

Yours, &c., N.

County Board of Equalization.

The County Board of Supervisors met as a Board of Equalization to-day at 1 o'clock. The roll being called by the clerk, the following members answered to their names:

Avon—A. M. Randall.

" —3d " A. W. Root.
Janesville City—1st ward, N. Parker.
" —2d " Geo. Barnes.
" —3d " H. W. Collins.
" —4th " H. S. Shelton.

Absent—J. Corey, Center; H. J. Murray, Turtle; J. Hackett, 4th ward, Beloit.

On motion of Mr. Greenman, the board proceeded to ballot for a chairman.

E. L. Carpenter and H. W. Collins were appointed tellers.

A. W. Pope received 12 votes, J. Doolittle 4, H. G. Greenman 3, scattering 3.

Mr. Pope was declared elected.

The members were then sworn in by S. L. James, clerk of the board.

On motion of Mr. Parker, a committee of one from each assembly district and one from the county at large was appointed to report a basis of equalization.

The chairman appointed Messrs. Parker, Bliss, Doolittle, Carpenter, Root, Spooner and Goodhue as this committee.

Mr. Parker was excused, at his request, and Mr. Collins substituted in his place.

Mr. H. P. Strong introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the law which has called us together only countenances our acting as a board of equalization, we will only entertain buisness directly bearing upon this question.

The board then adjourned until to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, to wait the report of the committee on a basis of equalization.

Picnic at Rock.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow us to say through the daily to the patriotic readers of the Gazette, that one of the finest picnics we ever attended was enjoyed on the glorious 4th in a beautiful grove on the east side of the river, opposite Afton. It was gotton up by F. Hollister and H. Inman, and the occasion was worthy of the men and women who conducted it. Many of the citizens of Afton and the surrounding country were in attendance to celebrate our national birth-day; and we must say for the ladies that we never sat down to a better or more tastefully arranged table, laden as it was with roast turkeys and pigs, fresh strawberries, with all the delicacies of the season. After all had fared sumptuously, we were treated to a short but good speech from S. D. Burlingame, followed by an address by the Rev. R. F. Parshall, which was telling and effective upon his audience.—Some very rich toasts were also read, and we dispersed, feeling that we had experienced all that a good dinner, hot coffee, (iced lemonade,) fine speeches, happy faces, and strong desires for liberty could impart.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Those ladies who contributed to the purchase of Havelocks for the Light Guard—Capt. Wheeler's company—are requested to meet at the parlor of the post office to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, to make some disposition of the money raised, as the Havelocks are not needed, having been furnished by government.

MRS. J. M. BURGESS.
MRS. J. P. DICKSON.

THE STORM.—We had a storm of wind, accompanied with considerable rain, early this morning. From the telegraphic despatch from Oshkosh we infer that it was much more severe north of us, and we shall probaby hear of further damage. This afternoon we are having a steady rain with lightning and thunder. The clouds are dense and dark, making gas light necessary in our office. The rain was very much needed, and will be received with thankfulness by all having growing crops.

KEEP DOING IT.—Constable Robertson has killed nine dogs to-day, and his powder is yet dry.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

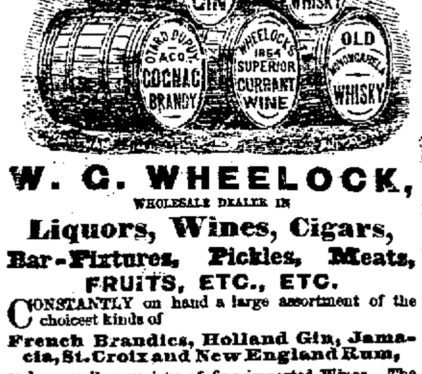

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New-York Life Insurance Company,

Cash Capital over - - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Cephalic Pills
CURE Sick Headache!
CURE Nervous Headache
CURE All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

SUBJECTS OF PATENTS.

"INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberal in their protection, is only to be just towards the rights of property, and tends to increase the public wealth and hastens the progress of practical improvements and of science. * * * The settled doctrine of the courts, now, under the light of large experience, is, to incline to constructions most favorable to patents."—Extract from opinion of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

May's Patents.

Double and Single Acting Pumps.

For any depth of mining shafts and wells, open or drilled, to 500 feet.

No suction pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pumping rods.

Are composed of two metalic cylinders and two brass valves, and wrought-iron conducting pipe.

Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and by means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at whatever depth, and work without noise.

They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!!

Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess valuable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

"Blow winds and crack your cheeks! rage! blow!"
—King Lear.

The winds are found to be the Cheapest Motor in existence and highly serviceable for many mechanical purposes, as pumping, sawing, turning, grinding, &c., &c.

WIND ENGINES, OR MILLS,

LATEST IMPROVEMENTS,

May's Patents.

These Engines are perfectly self-regulating and under easy control, independent of their self-governing qualities.

They are Strong and Durable.

No pains or expense has been spaired to simplify and perfect both pumps and engines to make them unrivalled in quality, and economical in price.

Every article, whether Pump or Engine, Warranted.

Call and examine thoroughly before buying.

Orders Filled on Short Notice!!

These Pumps and Engines are secured by Five Patents and Fifteen Claims.

Like most valuable Patents, they are already infringed.

Infringement rigidly prosecuted, unless settled.

Also, on hand

CARY'S ROTARY FORCE PUMPS,

for Mills, Factories, &c., and some of the best unpatented pumps, in prices from $2,50 and upwards. Any person with a little mechanical skill can set them up, but competent workmen furnished when desired, at their per diem wages and expenses.

Address as above.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine.

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, last 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. R. W. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 600 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

C. M. CLARK.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 126 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. REEVES & WADDLE,

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

JOHN TRACY.

Center, Rock county, Wis., Feb. 27th, 1861.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS.

Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.

WM. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 186 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.

J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. Address as above.

Also for sale, the Patents in the unsold territory for Badger's Portable Grist Mill, Gilmore & May's Rock Drill, Stone Dressing Machine and Quartz Rock Crusher, and Nash & Cutts' Grain Separator. All late Patents, are meritorious and sell freely. Address,

J. M. MAY, Agent, &c., as above.
